ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

MARRIED, DIVORCED, AND RE-MARRIED.

A few years ago, a young and beautiful lady, living not a thousand miles from Boston, had two suitors one poor and the other rich, the latter having less favor in the eyes of his mistress than his rival. And as is also usually the case in such instances, the young lady's preference conflicted with that of her relatives and friends. So decided were they in their opposition to a match with the poor mechanic, that the young lady finally consented to be the rich man's wife. They lived happily together. But in the progress of years reverses came; the best calculations can not always put off misfortune; and her husband announced one day that his failure had swept away his property. But he did not blow his brains out, nor take poison, nor did she go back to her mother, or regret the day she had ever married him. No. Both were too sensible to act so foolishly. He spent a few days with creditors in arranging matters, and then the couple moved away very quietly. In a week everybody knew that Mr. —— had failed, and a week later the gossips added to their statements the fact (for a wonder!) that he had gone to California to try and repair his fortunes, leaving his wife and two young children with means enough for many months to come.

A year passed, and Mrs —— heard from her husband but one, and then only a few lines, which accompanied a small remittance—and announced that his stay might be longer than he had anticipated

Another year went by, and only one more letter came, this time full business, and stating the period of his return more indefinitely

Then came a blank of several years, with no letter, no money, no news of any kind from her husband

The tongue of scandal was not silent during this period of doubt, but every circumstance reflecting on the fidelity of the husband to the wife was magnified, till she was led to believe herself deserted. Without means, she had to depend on her friends for her subsistance.

Thrown occasionally into the society of her former rejected suitor, a part of her old love returned, and believing that he had remained single for her sake, and having nothing to hope from her missing husband, she finally applied for and obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion.

One can imagine what her feelings were when she learned that her former lover had never, since his rejection by her and her marriage to another, cherished other feelings for her than those of friendship

Her disappointment was sharpened with anguish when, a few days after, she received a letter from her husband, stating that he had at last accumulated a fortune beyond his most sanguine expectations, and was then on his way home, with a closing request that she would meet him at New York. She gathered from the letter that money had been sent her often during those years, but which she had never received. She knew her husband, if affectionate, was also proud, and feared that he would never forgive the slight involved in her act of obtaining a divorce But she finally resolved on a full confession, and on the day of arrival of the steamer, she was the first to greet her late husband, who, after hearing all the particulars of her conduct during his absence, was at first inclined to refuse his forgiveness, but finally decided to overlook the past, with its mistakes and errors, and again accompanied to the alter the object of his early affections.

A Practical Joke.—A Portland (Maine) correspondent of a Boston paper says:

I find that people out here like a little fun and can laugh over it as heartily as in other places. A "love affair" occurred here recently which has made a great deal of sport. A youth became desperately in love with one of the fair ones of this city, who had but just turned 'sweet sixteen.' His passion was not reciprocated, but the young lady gave him some encouragement, "just for the fun of it." The "fond parents" were wroth, and sent the sinning daughter to a distance from the city. A correspondence sprung up between the lover and some young bloods, who, for sport, assumed to write billet doux in the name of the lady beloved but entirely without her knowledge A plan for elopement and marriage was the consequence. By the help of his young friends every thing was arranged The marriage was to take place in the tobacco factory and the happy pair were to spend the first night in that fragrant locality. A youngster of suitable size and proportion to personate the young lady, and closely vailed, got stealthily into the carriage, as the triumphant lover appeared at the appointed time and place. They drove to the tobacco factory, where friends were waiting.

The heart of the person who was to solemnize the marriage, failed him, and the play was very near coming to an abrupt termination. A youth of seventeen years, however, the son of a Maine man who, in his youth, had been an equal adept in roguery, came to the rescue, performed the ceremony "beautifully," and made a touching prayer for the happiness of the loving pair. The bride retired and the bridegroom had put off the most of his clothes, when the arrival of the enraged father of the bride was announced, accompanied by several friends and armed to the teeth The bridegroom and his friends were equally well armed, and the discharges of revolvers (loaded with powder) were rapid and terrible. The latter appeared to get the worst of the fight, and the bridegroom was compelled to fly through the streets at the dead hour of the night, with little more than his shirt upon his back A more absurd affair could scarcely be imagined, and in all its details it was so supremely ridiculous that one would not suppose any body could be thus imposed upon for a moment; yet, so well were the parts played that the "bridegroom" swallowed the whole, and actually consulted counsel next day as to how he should get possession of his wife! When the truth was revealed to him and he was convinced that it was truth, he immediately left for parts unknown, probably never to return.

The venerable Peter Cartwright had taken a seat for Rochester, and, during some fifteen minutes previous to the time the cars left the depot, the Doctor was giving, in his honest manner, his opinion of both Stephen A Douglas and Abraham Lincoln. He had finished the "Little Giant," and was saying of "Honest Abe" that he is a good citizen, upright, and in "point of talent is a second-rate lawyer." Just at that moment in came a bouncing, hot Republican, with his platform in his hand, and took a seat near the Doctor. He came just in time to hear the remark in regard to Mr Lincoln's talent, and it roused him wonderfully. He interrupt the Doctor, (not knowing him,) and proceeded, under a rather high pressure of steam, to inform him that he was mistaken on that point. After he had blown off somewhat, the Doctor said: "Well, my friend, I don't know but you are more familiar with the character and history of both Mr Douglas and Mr Lincoln than I am. For myself, I can only say that I have lived in the same county with both of them for twenty five years; that I gave to Mr Douglas the first office he was ever favored with; that I have myself twice run in opposition to Mr Lincoln for a seat in the Legislature of Illinois, and beaten him both times, and can do it again, if I will." By this time, you may well suppose that the laughter drowned whatever else the Doctor might have said.—Buffalo Courier.

☞ Judge B. was once obliged to "double" with an Irishman in a crowded hotel, when the following conversation ensued:

"Pat, you would haue remained a long time in the old country before you would have slept with a Judge, would you not?"

"Yes, yer Honor," said Pat, "and I think yer Honor would have been a long time in the 'ould counthry' before ye'd been a Judge, too."

[From the Boston Courier]

Reception of the News in Boston.—Friday, May 18, will long be remembered by the men of Massachusetts, as the day on which the Republican party was executed. Since the death of Webster, we have not seen men so sober and so sad, in this city. Had the capitol on Beacon Hill, from some hidden cause, sunk into the crust of the earth—had the court house turned round—had the city hall and the old state house moved arm-in-arm on a visit of ceremony to the custom house—all these unnatural things combined could not have produced so profound a sensation as did the unlooked for announcement that Abe Lincoln, of Illinois, had received the nomination of the Republican convention, at Chicago. Such was the intense sadness of the Republicans—so real was their depression and woe, that Democrats could not find it in their hearts to make light of their affliction. "What possessed them to nominate Lincoln?" inquired a Republican merchant. "Availability," answered a shabby man, whose face was half hidden in a Kossuth hat. "And are the great interests of this great nation to be given over to a mand we do not know, because some one says he is 'available'?" muttered the merchant, as he walked off. The streets, during the afternoon, were dotted with groups of serious looking men—mainly Republicans—who talked of nothing but "the blunder." The nomination of Lincoln has not received the unqualified approbation of any person, so far as we have heard. "It is a fact that cannot be disputed,"—said one orator, to a group assembled in the post office—"Mr Seward has the hearts of the Republican masses in New England; they have long been familiar with his name—have read his speeches, and know that whenever he spoke, he spoke ably and like a statesman; and it will be hard work to convince them that the public good required that he should be thrust aside by such a man as Abe Lincoln" "Sir," said a business politician, "you are a sentimentalist. The masses have no rights that politicians are called upon to respect. If Mr Seward wanted to succeed, he should have gone for humbug." And thus the groups argued until nightfall. The result of the ballots will be found in the telegraph column. It will be seen that our sister State won the second prize, and that the Republican standard bearers for 1860 are Abe Lincoln of Illinois, and Hannibal Hamlin of Maine No selection of candidates could have been more unfortunate for Massachusetts. The women and children laugh at it. Still, there was a salute of one hundred guns; but whether it was to signalize the death or life of the party, time will tell.

Extremes Meeting.—A prominent delegate from Ohio to the Chicago Convention, on his return from the meeting of that body, informed us that in his opinion, and the sentiment was generally entertained at Chicago, the position taken by Hon. W. L Yancey, at Charleston, was the true construction of the Constitution in reference to the right and duty of Congress to legislate for the Territories, upon the slavery issue The doctrines enunciated by Mr. Yancey upon that question are those held by the Republican party.—The extremists of the South and the extremists of the North, upon this issue, hold the same principle. The former believe it to be the duty of Congress to prohibit it. If this doctrine is confirmed by the people of the country, what will be the result? It will be nothing more or less than 'irrepressible conflict' in our national Legislature to either prohibit or protect slavery in the Territories. The doctrine of non-intervention removes this vexed question out of Cogress, and prevents it from being a foot-ball for ambitious politicians to play with It makes the question as to the rights of person and property a judicial one, and gives to the people of the Territories, beyond this the right to control this domestic institution Upon a full discussion of the whole question in 1856, the people of the country decided in favor of non-intervention, and to that doctrine they will adhere in 1860.—State Sentinel.

Washington, May 21.

From Washington.—In compliance with a resolution of the House, the President communicated to that body a report of the Attorney General, showing the amount expended toward defence on private land claims in California, the details of the expenditure and the result. It appears from this document that incredible numbers of fraudulent claims to land in California had been fabricated and sustained by the most unblushing perjury. Many of them had been approved by the Board of Land Commissioners and by the district courts of California. No less than twenty-five appeals of these cases were heard and decided by the Supreme Court in favor of the government at the last term. The amount involved was not less than $100,000,000! One claim was for 36,000 square miles of land; another for 450 square miles, and the famous Santillan claim was for a part of the city of San Francisco, worth about $10,000,000.

The Japanese commissioners, attended by several members of their suite, and the naval commission proceeded to the State department at noon, to-day, where their treaty with this government was duly ratified The copies of the documents were carefully compared, and certificates of correctness, of which there were several signed and exchanged. On their way to the department, the treaty was borne on the shoulders of their servants.

Secretary Cass, during the diplomatic proceedings, informed the commissioners that it afforded him great pleasure to exchange the ratifications of the treaty with them, and expressed a fervent hope that the two nations would be bound still closer in friendship

The commissioners reciprocated the compliments, and expressed their obligations to the venerable Secretary, and spoke of the kind attention bestowed on them, and trusted that peace between the countries might be overlasting.

Territorial Items.—At Lawrence a buck negro was brought before a black-republican justice, and it was proven that the negro had in his possession several yoke of oxen, stolen from a white man, but, because in that locality a white man is not considered as good as a negro, the latter was pronounced guiltless. At the same delectable city at Lawrence a negro stole a set of harness from his white brother, Gen Jim Lane, who, though incensed at Sambo's ingratitude, refrained from any manifestations thereof, out of respect for the color of the thief. Still further from the city of abolitionism we have the announcement that a son of the famous Dr. Doy was under arrest for stealing a wagon. Can a corrupt fountain give forrh pure water.

Old Line Democrats of Mississippi in Motion.—A call has been issued by the National Democrats of Columbus, Miss., calling upon the Old Line Democrats to appoint delegates to a convention to meet at Jackson for the appointment of delegates to Baltimore. It will be held on the 6th of June. That is a movement in the right direction. It is a question with the Democrats of the South, of the most vital moment, and that is, shall they, by following YANCEY and company, disrupt the Democratic party, and thereby elect MR. SEWARD President of the Unuted States?—The Old Line Democrats of Mississippi intend to place themselves in no equivocal position on that subject before the country.—Cin. En.

Future Conventions.—Much of the trouble at the Charleston Convention was occasioned by the large number of delegates and the unwieldy character of the body. The committee on whom was devolved the duty of adopting regulations for future conventions, agreed to recommend the reduction of the number of delegates one half, or one for each District and two for the State at large. The place and time of the next Convention is to be left to the National Committee The committee had no opportunity to report their action previous to the adjournment at Charleston, but will doubtless do so at Baltimore, and their recommendations will be concurred in. A body of three hundred men will be much more likely to go along harmoniously than one of six hundred.

Escape and Recapture of Prisoners from the New Penitentiary.—One Man Shot.—From a private letter of A J Mullen, the Prison Physician, we obtained the following details of the escape and shooting at the Northern Indiana Prison, mentioned yesterday morning.

A company of prisoners were engaged in planting corn on the Prison lands in charge of John Lane, a young man, twenty-four years of age, appointed a guard from Clinton county. He had the superintendence of the farm hands. About eight o'clock, in the morning, the whole squad of prisoners in his charge suddenly made a break. Lane quickly jumped into their midst and ordered them to stop several times, but they kept on running He drew his Navy revolver and fired on the leader, a man named McGraw, killing him instantly. The ball passed through his body. McGraw was a desperate man, committed for burglary and an old offended.

Lane then caught one of the fugitives and tied him securely and delivered him to the guards at the prison. Several guards besides Lane were mounted quickly, and in pursuit of the others, and in a short time succeeded in taking all but one. Captain Buford caught two of them hid in a swamp. The remaining man, named Bennett, could not be found. The most of the gaurds, tired with the chase of the day, were willing to give upon, but Lane was determined to have his man, and started again into the pine swamps, south of the prison grounds and the city. About dark he came in with his fugitive, having found him in a secluded place, trying to bury himself in the sand to avoid being seen. Lane has acted with much presence of mind and intrepidity in the whole matter and has won laurels. He should be properly rewarded by the prison officers. It is hoped that the tragical death of McGraw, resulting from this escape, will deter many others and may save many lives hereafter by the terrible lesson it will give the others. A spot on the side hill overlooking the prison has been selected for a burial ground, and the funeral, at which all the prisoners will be present, will take place to-morrow.—State Sentinel.

Woman's Rights and Divorce.—We published yesterday the a series of resolutions offered in the National Woman's Rights Convention at Cooper Institute, by Mrs. Stanton, which, although abounding in verbiage, placed the married relation upon a more liberal footing than business contracts in general, and proposed, virtually, to give the female member of the firm the privilege of breaking up the partnership whenever it becomes distasteful to her The argument seems to have been that a girl is not, as a general rule, capable of selecting a husband, and that, therefore, when she finds that she has married a man that does not suit her, she is to save herself from the unhappiness of living with him by dissolving the family and setting up for herself Our lawmakers, she said, have made a pit, and the innocent have fallen in; and now, she asked, will you make them stay in all their life as the penalty of one misstep? That is, if a girl marries a man to whom she afterwards takes a dislike, shall she be compelled by law to remain his wife?

Mrs Blackwell took a different view of the case, and Messrs Phillips and Garrison thought the resolutions unfit to go upon the record; but a majority of the women composing the Convention it seems agreed with Mrs Stanton, and so the resolutions were adopted; and thus the woman's rights movement has been identified with an exceedingly loose view of the marriage relation. There are persons who have been favorable to some of the reforms asked, who will be disgusted with this new dogma.—N. Y. Post, 12th.

Prosperous.

Thompson's Bank-note Reporter, in an article on the encouraging aspect of American woolen manufactures, says:

"We know of foreign houses who have been for several years past large importers of German and French cassimeres, who affirm that the past season witnessed their last efforts in that line—Many of the goods have been sold at twenty-five per cent. less. The American goods are produced with such taste and skill by the best makers that the foreign goods can not interfere with them as formerly. The manufacturers are busy with their autumn goods, and promises are made of some choice and rich styles."

Notwithstanding all that, the Abolition Republicans demand a high protective tariff, and Pennsylvania delegates to Chicago, go wild over a plank in their platform to tax the farming and mechanical interests of the country, for the especial benefit of their State!

A Harmonious Party.—The papers in the Republican interests having Whigh antecedents, are rejoicing over the passage of the tariff resolution by the Chicago Convention, which they interpret to mean protection to domestic industry—and in fact a protective tariff.

On the contrary, the New York Evening Post, a leading Republican organ, but devoted to free trade principles, construes the resolution to mean a "reciprocal free trade," and threatens to finish the Republican President when he shall have been elected, if he does not act upon that construction. It says.

"The construction we have placed upon this resolution we shall hold to firmly. If the Republican party should elect its candidate, he must act on that construction, or he will soon find himself encountered by an opposition by which he will be overwhelmed."

☞ There is a proposition before the Canadian Provincial Parliament to abolish all tolls upon the canals of Canada. It would cost the provinces only about $90,000 a year, and would do much to secure a larger share of the western trade than they now have. If the Erie canal and the New York railroads are taxed, and the Canadian thoroughfares are thrown open freely to the produce which is seeking the seaboard, the business relations of the west may be to a certain extent changed It is very manifest that our Canadian neighbors are determined to make every effort to profit to the utmost by their facilities for reaching the trade of the Mississippi valley.

The "Irrepressible Conflict"—Mr Lincoln, the Republican candidate for President, in his speech at Columbus, Ohio, in September last, claimed the paternity of the "irrepressible conflict" sentiment. In that speech he said: "I do not believe Gov SEWARD uttered that sentment because I HAD DONE SO BEFORE, but because he reflected on this subject, and SAW THE TRUTH OF IT."—SEWARD simply placed in a bolder light the idea first proclaimed by LINCOLN. It is so seldom that the original inventor reaps the fruit of his labor, that we are disposed to put the "irrepressible saddle on the right horse, so that Abraham may have the full benefit of it. We think, however, that riding on a rail would be much leasanter than riding on that saddle.—Cin Enq.

The New Tariff Bill—The New York Journal of Commerce, who has seen the new tariff bill, as it passed the House of Congress, and who is well acquainted with the details and operations of tariff acts, thus speaks of the present bill:

"The bill as it stands is a wonderful piece of mosaic—too voluminous for criticism in detail, but absurd and impracticable in nearly all its varied parts. If it were possible for such a bill to pass it would take all the legal talent of the party which concocted it at least twelve months of steady application to harmonize and explain its provisions, and would lead to more disputes and vexations litigation than all the previous tariffs since the first revenue system was adopted. The Senate Committee will probably make an adverse report upon it, and it will then sink, we trust, to its deserved oblivion."

A Good Project.—We are informed that the Rev. Joseph A Stephan and Mr John Ball, both of this city, have been appointed Commissioners to locate a Catholic Colony in the north-western part of this State, and that the appointment has been fully sanctioned and approved by the Bishop of Fort Wayne. The location is not yet made, the Commissioners having just received their appointment, but we understand they purpose making it forthwith, and will at once build a church and school house, together with such business structures as are requisite. This matter is of much importance to Lafayette, as it will bring into our immediate neighborhood several thousand thrifty German and Irish people, who will cultivate and make productive several thousands of acres which now lay waste. The location will probably be made in either Jasper, White or Benton county. Success to the project, for it is a good and laudable one.—Lafayette Journal.

☞ The New York Tribune gives the following versified description of a New York Justice:

"The Judge was a very clever man, and a jovial Judge was he;
"The Judge was good at a game of ball, and just as good at a spree;
"The Judge was fond of whisky-skin and of every kind of sport;
"The Judge was au fait at every thing but attending to his Court;
"The Judge was a remarkable man, in his own peculiar way;
"The Judge ne'er forgot to neglect his Court, and ne'er forgot his pay."

☞ We have a faint idea that a Judge might be found in Indiana, who might have sat for the above portrait Have any of our readers seen him?

Dr. Hayes's Artic Expedition.—There is now no doubt that Dr. Hayes will be ready to start on his Artic expedition by the 15th of June, if the citizens of New York fulfil the promises of assistance that they have made to him. His visit to Boston was so successful that he felt warranted in purchasing a vessel of 133 tons, and is making every preparation for her equipment and outfit, confidently relying upon the completion of his fund. The little vessel will be specially strengthened by numerous braces in her hold, and her bows will be fitted with iron plates. Dr Hayes has selected as his sailing captain, Capt. McCormick, who has been engaged in the British merchant-service about seventeen years, and has had some experience in "high latitudes" on one or more voyages to the Amoor river.

Railroad Bridge Demolished by the Storm.—The tornado which visited this section on Monday afternoon, appears to have swept across Illinois, and done no little damage in its course.—The railway bridge across Rock River, on the Rock Island Road, was lifted from its piers and entirely demolished by the wind The structure was about twelve hundred feet in length. It was substantially built of heavy timbers, resting upon stone piers. Over one half the bridge taken out of the center, was destroyed, the heavy timbers being twisted and broken like wisps of straw.—The damage to the company is from $25,000 to $30,000.

A Man and his Wife Robbing Henroosts—A new use for the Hooped Skirt.—For some time past the residents of the country towns in the vicinity of Brooklyn have been the victims of fowl robberies, and the attention of the police authorities having been called to the fact, a strict watch has been kept for the arrest of the perpetrators. The police of the Fifth precinct, having occasion to suspect a man named William Mills, who, with his wife, proceeding on a wagon in the direction of Jamaica. Officers Lynn, Lee and Murphy were set to watch for his return; and at an early hour this morning the wagon hove in sight, and was immediately hailed by the officers, who demanded to see its contents; but to their suppriser the only occupants of the wagon were Mills and his wife. The officers were about to leave, when a chucking noise, proceeding from under Mrs. Mills' amyle skirt, caused them to look in that quarter, when no less than fourteen sprightly looking chickens were found. Mills and his wife were taken into custody.—N. Y. Post.

"Suppose it was Monday."—In a Dissenting Chapel, near Barnardcastle, a few Sundays ago, two farmers met. One of them, on his way to the chapel, had noticed a fine calf in his neighbor's field, which circumstance gave rise to the following conversation. Addressing his friend in a tone which he intended for a whisper, but which was loud enough to be heard for several yards around, he said: "Tommy, supposing it was Monday, what wud ye tak for your calf?" "Why," replied the other, "supposing it was Monday, aw wud tak two pund fifteen." "Supposing it was Monday, aw'l gi' two pund ten." "Supposing it was Monday, then, ye shall hav't." The bargain was thus concluded, and the calf, we are informed, was duly delivered on the following day

He complied; she handed up a basket, and was about to step in herself, when, thinking he saw masculine indications, he dropped his whip and asked her to pick it up, and then quickly started his horses. The basket contained pistols and a bowie-knife. Mr. W. had a large sum of money with him.

Congressional Convention.

The Democrats of the 10th Congressional District will hold a Convention at Kendallville, Noble County, on the 29th day of June next, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

It is suggested that nominations for State Senator and Judge of the Court of Common Pleas might also be made at the same time and place, (for Districts within this Congressional District;) and that provision be made for such nominations in the appointment of delegates.

The Gubernatorial Canvass.—Messrs. Hendricks and Lane, candidates for Governor, addressed our citizens on Tuesday last. Mr Hendricks made a decidedly good impression, and far exceeded the expectations of his friends, while it is not too much to say that Col. Lane fell as far short of what had been looked for, and grievously disappointed his party. Taking his speech here as a fair sample of his powers, he is certainly much overrated as a public speaker, and presents few claims to the support of intelligent citizens for the high office to which he aspires. His manner and language are of the high pressure, highfaluting, clap-trap order, while the matter —if matter there was in the speech—is beneath criticism. He shrieked for Kansas, was emphatic on the colored gentleman, and repeated all the stale calumnies against the democratic party, but failed to show any good fruits of republicanism, or give any plausible reason why that party should be placed in power. His whole speech was a mere piece of empty bombastic declamation—full of sound and fury, but signifying nothing. Pointless as the speech was, it was received with the noisiest demonstrations of applause by his friends, who probably knowing that nothing could be said in favor of their party, were gratified to see how adroitly he filled up his time, and what a torrent of high-sounding words he kept up, without in reality saying anything.

The speech of Mr. Hendricks, on the contrary, was a calm, clear, argumentative exposition of the principles of the Democratic party, and their peculiar adaptedness to the wants of the country, as proved by the success which has attended their adoption, and the prosperity which they have brought to the Union On the nigger question he said but little, as he considered his duties in the office to which he aspired related more peculiarly to the much neglected white race—and we fully agree with him. He ably refuted the calumnies his competitor showered on the Democratic party, and showed conclusively the emptiness of Republican promises by their barrenness of results; no good fruits could be shown as the result of Republican government. The inconsistency of that party was shown up in a masterly style, and the hollowness of their pretences ably delineated. While adopting the homestead bill as one of the chief planks in their Chicago platform, they nominated a man for Vice President who had always bitterly opposed the measure, and had actually voted against it a few days before his nomination! Col Lane when in Congress had made no attempt to pass a Homestead bill, while the first speech he (Hendricks) made in Congress was in favor of that measure. We have no room to follow in detail all the points made in this admirable speech but may refer to it again.

Mr. Hendricks is a pleasing, graceful speaker, moderate but decided in his views, clear, distinct and forcible in his language, and peculiarly winning, courteous and unassuming in his manner. He affords a striking contrast to the boisterous, declamatory claptrap style of his opponent, with his ridiculous antics and mountebank tricks; and is incomparably the most suitable man for Governor of a large and growing State like Indiana. Every sensible man, whatever his politics, must give him the preference, and feel that the best interests of the State would be safer in the hands of such a pratical clear-headed statesman, than in those of such an inflated, empty demagogue as his opponent.

We hope the joint canvass may be extended to every county in the State. We should wish every citizen to see and hear the two men together, compare their capabilities and claims to public confidence, and the result could not fail to be an overwhelming majority for Hendricks.

TERRIBLE HURRICANE!

Houses, Barns, Orchards &c. Destroyed!

On Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock we were visited by a tremendous wind storm, accompanied with thunder and lightning, but no rain or hail. In the city the storm was comparatively light, and we do not hear of any material damage being done; but immediately north it raged with fearful violence. The William Penn House, on the Lima Plank Road, a large brick building, had both gable ends blown down, and the barn, on the opposite side of the road had the roof and a portion of the sides blown away. An unoccupied new dwelling of Mr C. Fegel, a short distance from the Penn House, was totally destroyed; as was also the log cabin of Mr Geistdorfer, whose family were buried in the ruins, but fortunately were not severely injured. A barn adjoining the cabin was carried entirely away, scarcely a fragment being left in the vicinity. Fences, orchards, and forest trees were alike swept off, marking the devastating course of the hurricane, and leaving behind a terrible scene of confusion and destruction. Mr. Jesse Coles, a miles east of the Penn House had a valuable tract of choice timber entirely prostrated, scarcely a tree being left standing Mr. Blakeley, who lives east of Coles', had his orchard and barn ruined, and several others, living between him and the Feeder Dam, also sustained heavy loss in buildings, fences, &c. The brick house of John Waters, on the St. Joe, above the Dam, was destroyed, as was also his barns, and a frame house. We hear of much damage along the St. Joe and Cedar Creek, but have no room for particulars. The storm was also felt down the Maumee and other parts of the county, and we also hear of it in Wells county.

In all this destruction of property it seems miraculous that so few persons were personally hurt We hear of a child belonging to a French family near the Feeder Dam who is severely perhaps dangerously wounded, which is the only one that has come to our knowledge. Many persons were in danger of being carried away by the violence of the wind, and only secured themselves by holding on to trees or stumps, or by laying flat on the ground and holding on to the grass or bushes; and even these in some cases had to renew their hold several times before they could remain secure. It was the most violent storm ever remembered here.

At Indianapolis, about 5 o'clock the same evening, a violent storm was experienced, accompanied by hail stones of prodigious size. Its ravages were confined to the southern border of the city. Several buildings were destroyed, and one man, Mr Goldsmith, was so severely injured by the roof falling upon him that his life is despaired of. Two others were also injured, but not dangerously

The past two weeks seems to have been peculiarly prolific in hurricanes. We hear of them in every direction. In Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, and various parts of this State, and in Cattaraugus Co, New York.

The Caucus Platform.—Jeff Davis' resolutions in relation to slavery in the territories have been passed, with some amendments, by the Senate. Mr Clingman moved to amend the fourth resolution to the effect that the existing condition of the Territories of the United States does not require the intervention of Congress for the protection of property in slaves. This proviso was adopted. Ayes 26, Nays 22. Mr Bright, of Indiana, voted with the fire-eaters against the proviso—a vote which is utterly opposed to the sentiment of the State he should represent, and will not be approved by a single Democrat in Indiana. When a public servant becomes so blinded by prejudice and personal hostility that he can no longer discharge his duty to his constituents it is time he should resign. A residence at home among the people for a few weeks might open his eyes to the folly of the course he has lately been pursuing.

☞ The friends of the Baltimore Convention and the Secessionists lately held meetings in Huntsville, Alabama, to appoint delegates to their respective State Conventions. The number present, who were for Baltimore and for its nominees, whoever they may be, was seven hundred. The Secessionists had but thirty persons at their meeting This is about the ratio of strength of the two parties in all North Alabama.

HON. JOHN LAW, one of the ablest men in the State, was nominated for Congress from the 4th Congressional District, by the Democratic Convention held at Princeton on Wednesday.

Eighth District.—The Republicans of the 8th (Lafayette) district have nominated Isaac A. Wright, of Fountain Co., as their candidate for Congress.

Eleventh District.—At the Democratic Congressional Convention, held at Huntington on Tuesday, Asbury Steele, of Grant Co, was unanimously nominated for Congress. Resolutions were adopted reiterating attachment to the Cincinnati Platform, as endorsed at Charleston; and approving the course of the Indiana delegation at Charleston, and requesting them to continue to vote for Douglas as long as his name should be before the Baltimore Convention.

The first public exhibition of the Allen Co. Horticultural Society was held in Colerick's Hall yesterday. The exhibition of strawberries was magnificent, including many of the most esteemed varieties, and afforded ample evidence either that our climate is admirably adapted to this choice fruit, or that we have among us most skilful and industrious cultivators. Several mammoth samples of Pie Plant were on exhibition, as also currants, gooseberries, &c., and samples of last year's apples in excellent preservation, appearing as fresh and inviting as if just gathered from the tree A profusion of rare and beautiful flowers, tastefully and admirably arranged, adorned the room, and added much to the general appearance of the exhibition. The whole affair was extremely well got up and managed, and reflects much credit on the Society.

Consecration of the Lindenwood Cemetery—This new burial ground was consecrated with appropriate religious ceremonies, participated in by most of the clergy of our city, on Wednesday last. The address was delivered by Rev Mr. McMullen of Richmond; Rev. Mr Lowrie of this city recited a beautiful poetic address prepared for the occasion; prayer was offered by Rev Mr Battin, portions of the scripture were read by other clergymen, and an ode and suitable hymns and psalms sang by the choir. The whole services were solemn and impressive, and were listened to with deep attention by the large audience in attendance.

After the services a public sale of lots was had, which resulted most satisfactorily to the trustees, $4,000 worth being sold. Many others will be sold at private sale shortly, purchasers desiring a more convenient opportunity to examine the grounds and make their selections than could be afforded at a public sale.

The City Free Schools closed yesterday, after a term of five months The attendance of children has been large, and their general improvement we believe highly satisfactory.—thanks to the excellent corps of teachers who were engaged The school will probably recommence about the 1st October.

Meeting of State Central Committee—Pursuant to notice, the Democratic State Central Committee met at the State Sentinel office, Indianapolis, on Wednesday, the 30th of May. Hon. N B Palmer in the chair On motion, J J Bingham was elected Secretary. After consultation the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Committee:

Resolved, That the action of the delegates from Indiana to the National Democratic Convention at Charleston has our cordial approval, and we believe that it fairly and justly represents the sentiment of their constituency.

Resolved, That the platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention has the cordial approval of the Democracy of Indiana.

Resolved, That the delegates appointed by the State Convention held on the 11th of January last, to the National Convention, be requested to attend the adjourned Baltimore Convention and faithfully carry out the instructions of the State Convention, and if said delegates cannot attend, that they notify their contingents of their inability to do so in ample time for them to attend said Convention.

Resolved, That we have unabated confidence in the political integrity of Stephen A Douglas; that we believe he is the choice of the Democracy of Indiana for the Presidency, and that we have no doubt, if elected President, he will faithfully carry out and observe all the provisions of the Constitution, and that the constitutional rights of the States will not only be respected in letter, but in spirit.

Resolved, That it is a settled and cardinal principle of the Democratic party that the choice of a majority of the party, regularly and honestly expressed, ought, and of right should prevail, and has Hon. Stephen A Douglas has, in regular Convention, on numerous ballots, received a majority of the whole number of electoral votes, for the sake of harmony it is the duty of the minority to yield.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Democracy of Indiana a thorough organization as necessary to successfully meet and overcome a well disciplined and unscrupulous political foe. To that end we suggest a county, township and school district organization, for the thorough dissemination of correct information upon the political issues of the day.

Resolved, That experience having demonstrated that the best interests of the State are dependant upon the maintenance of Democratic policy, it is the first duty of the Democracy of Indiana to secure a Democratic administration of her State affairs.

Resolved, That the President and Secretary of the last State Convention be requested to supply the President of the Baltimore Convention with the names to the delegates and contingent delegates to the National Democratic Convention, with the instructions of the State Convention to said delegates.

Resolved, That this Committee adjourn to meet on the 28th day of June.

By order of the committee.

N B. PALMER, Chairman.

Buffalo, May 24.

A vote was taken in the conference this morning on the first resolution in the majority of the committee's report, which recommends a change of the rules in the dicipline on slavery. The vote stood 138 for the resolution and 74 against, lacking ten votes of the required two thirds to adopt.

Buffalo, May 31.

After the transaction of some uninteresting business, the slavery report was taken up.

The substitute of Dr Durbin, offered some days ago, was taken from the table and rejected.

The question before the conference was on the adoption of the third resolution in the majority report, which introduces a new chapter on slavery into the discipline, in place of the old one.

Various amendments were offered and rejected, when at 5 o'clock the main question was called and the new chapter adopted by a vote of 154 to 57.

The First Question at Baltimore--The New Delegates from the Gulf States.

The first question which will meet the Convention at Baltimore, when it reassembles on the 18th of June, will be the admission of the new delegates from the seceding States. The idea advanced by some, of having the seceders come back and resume their places, without any new election or new credentials from their constituents at home, has been abandoned, it being manifestly wrong and impossible. We need not, therefore, allude to that position Two Conventions have been called in each of the States of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, to appoint delegates. One of them is by the National Democracy in those States, who stand upon the platform adopted at Charleston, and who pledge themselves to support the nominees at Baltimore, whoever they be, without any reservation whatever. They especially repudiate the call for the Richmond Convention, and treat it in all respects as an opposition assemblage, as much so as that which recently met at Chicago

On the other hand, the friends of the seceders in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, perhaps other States, who claim regular organization, have called conventions to deliberate "what is best to be done;" whether the States shall be represented in the Opposition Convention at Richmond, or the Democratic Convention at Baltimore. Their design, as avowed by their organs, is to appoint delegates to both the Democratic Convention at Baltimore and the Opposition Convention at Richmond. The will meet in the latter city first, and, after perfecting an organization, will adjourn over until after the Baltimore Convention. They will go to the latter body with an ultimatum that, if it does not change the platform and nominate somebody else for President than Mr. Douglas, they will meet again at Richmond and nominate candidates in opposition to those regularly nominated by the Democracy of the country

The statement of these two points indicates which set of delegates from Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi, should be received at Baltimore. As no man can serve God and Mammon at the same time, so no one can be allowed to go into both the Richmond and Baltimore Conventions. Those who recognize the Richmond affair in any shape or manner, who participate in its proceedings are outside of the pale of the Democratic party. Especially are they so when they denounce the national platform just made by the Democratic party, and declare their purpose of refusing to support its nominees unless they are those whom they prefer. The call of those gentlemen in the Gulf States shows that they are no Democrats. It is not to send delegates to Baltimore to fill the place of the seceders, but to deliberate which is best to be done; whether the Democracy shall go to Baltimore or whether they shall join the opposition at Richmond. The very fact that they leave it an open question convicts them of being hostile to the Democratic organization, which never for a moment contemplate its disbandment.

It matters not, therefore, what claims of regularity may be set up by those men, no one can be received into the Baltimore Convention who is in any way identified with Richmond, and who make an ultimatum the price of their adherence to the Democratic party. The delegates of the National Democracy from the Gulf States are the only persons who have a shadow of claim to be admitted in Baltimore, and we presume the question of contested seats, if it is raised, will be summarily settled in their favor. This done, no question should be considered in order before the Convention except to ballot for the office of President of the United States.—Cin. En.

Stationary Boots.

Illinois has a reputation at Washington in the business of stationery Some years ago John Wentworth represented this district in Congress. An accident to the mail at Buffalo, required the opening of certain bags of "documents" franked to our member, and the result was the discovery of whole bags of public property taken by Wentworth and franked home by that individual. An investigation followed in Congress, and the result was that the public stationery was put under lock and key, and a book-keeper appointed whose duty it is to deliver to each member as it is called for, such articles as he may desire—keeping an account of the same at cost prices.—When the amount taken exceeds an established sum, the excess is deducted from his salary.

Now when Lincoln went to Congress, he thought he would make a shine; fashionable boots were high, even at a figure rather above the Springfield rates. After studying the case for a long time, he worked out how he could supply himself with boots, and yet not pay for them out of his pocket. He first thought of delivering a lecture, but no one could be found who would come down with the $200. He then thought of making speeches and charging 25 cents a head just as he did recently in New England, but he could not get persons to come to hear him. In this extremity his futile genius suggested that he would buy the boots and have them paid for out of the public money. He therefore ordered a pair at eight dollars; they were sent up, by Abe's orders to the stationery clerk at the capitol, and Abe drew them as stationery At the next session he drew another pair of boots in the same manner—they being paid for out of the public money. When he was leaving for home—quitting Congress for ever—he ordered an extra fine pair at NINE DOLLARS and they were boxed up with his books, and franked to "Hon. Abraham Lincoln, Springfield, Illinois."

The record of this boot transaction stands thus on the books of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, and in his vouchers in the treasury at Washington:

"Hon. Abraham Lincoln:

Three pairs of boots..............$25."

The idea that "this government cannot permanently endure half free and half slave," when members of Congress can provide themselves with boots—NINE DOLLAR BOOTS,—at the expense of the people, is preposterous. Just think of "Honest Abe" having his boots sent up to the capital to be drawn out by him as "stationery" Just think of the simplicity of the honest man who taxed the people to pay for his boots when he was drawing eight dollars per day and mileage

Col. Lane, of Indiana, when speaking of Lincoln in the Republican Convention, closed his remarks by saying:

"Thirty years ago you might have seen near the boundary line between Indiana and Illinois, Abe Lincoln leading barefooted oxen to the pasture and following them with the plow"

Lincoln's early experience with "barefooted oxen" might have given him some strange notions about boots; but, certain it is, that the first moment he got to Congress he provided himself at the public expense, with the best boots he could obtain.—Chicago Times.

North Carolina Politics—Extract from a private letter from a North Carolina delegate to the National Convention, written to a friend in this city:

"Is required as much moral courage and firmness in a Southern delegate to remain in the convention as it did to go out. I never for a moment wavered in the determination to remain. I am satisfied that the leaders of the secession movement are disunionists per se. I am not prepared for dissolution. North Carolina is not prepared for it God forbid that the day should ever come when the madness, the aggressions of the North, and our own prejudices and folly, should compel us thus to prepare. The issue is now between taking Stephen A Douglas at Baltimore, and defeat and sectional dissolution."—Wash. States.

Ex-President Fillmore for Bell—The Jersey City Standard has seen a recent letter from ex-President Fillmore, in which that gentleman says:

If it was in my power, I would at once elect Messrs. Bell and Everett, than whom better nominations could not have been made.

Washington, May 29.

The act of recommitting the Pacific Railroad bill, together with the various amendments, to the Select Committee of the House to-day, is regarded as equivalent to its postponement for the present session The reasons for thus disposing of it, include the contrariety of opinions as to the proper location of the Road, and the insufficiency of the conditions to secure the execution of the work by those on whom the franchises were to be conferred.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day unanimously agreed to report the Senate bill appropriating $10 000 to Townsend Harris, for negotiating the treaty with Siam, which is intended as an acknowledgment of his valuable services to the Commerce in the East.

The presents of the U S. Agricultural Society to the Japanese, consist of one hundred varieties of the principal cereals and vegetable seeds, with their botanical designations Each of the Princes receives the silver medal of the Society, with their names inscribed in their own characters. The Japanese, for several days past, have been on a tour of inspection throughout the city. They were particularly interested in a large establishment witnessing the manufacture of the finer quality of gold and silver ornaments.

The Judiciary Committee of the Senate have agreed a bill compelling the attendance of witnesses who may be summoned by Committees of either House

Madame Bodisco, widow of the late Russian minister, was married to-day to Capt. Scott of the British Army. He was dressed in full uniform. President Buchanan gave the bride away. Among those present were Lord Lyons, Secretary Thompson and many of the Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Mr. Hatch's report on the Canadian Reciprocity Treaty is not only opposed to the main articles of that instrument, but the Administration are also reported against it, and the Treaty will be opposed upon the floor of the House. The Secretary of State declines to comply with the call of the House for a copy of Hatch's report, on the ground that it would be incompatible with the public interests.

The admission of Kansas is specially assigned for to-day in the Senate Mr Sumner will make an elaborate speech on the subject on Monday.

Washington, May 30.

The disagreement action of the two branches of Congress on the Homestead bill is now under the consideration of a Joint Committee consisting of Senators Johnson of Tenn., Johnson of Ark, and Harlan, and Representatives Grow, Thomas, and Lovejoy.

☞ The meeting called at New Orleans, for the purpose of repudiateing the action of the seceders at Charleston, and sustaining Judge Douglas, was very fully attended. The principle speaker was the ardent and impulsive Pierre Soule, formerly Minister to Spain. He charged upon the Southern States that they had been placed in an abnormal position by the action of the seceding delegates The question now before the country he said, might be reduced to these terms: Is the power of the country to be transferred to the Chicago Republicans, or shall it be left in the hands of the party which has withstood so many storms? On the question of popular sovereignty, as explained by Judge Douglas, Mr Soule claimed that John C Calhoun had given countenance to same identical views, and so had Messrs Cobb, Toucey and Dickinson. He declared that the present was no time for a division in the Democratic ranks.

Arrival of the Arabia.

Halifax, May 28.

The royal mail steamship Arabia, Capt Stone, from Liverpool on the 19th, via Queenstown on the 20th inst., has arrived at this port.

Intelligence relative to the Garabaldi expedition is still meagre and conflicting, but the reports generally concur in stating that he was making good progress. Some say that he had captured the most important points in Sicily, except Messina and Palermo. After his landing at Marsili, the Neapolitan war vessels bombarded that town without a warning, and the British vessels interposed for the protection of the English residents

The important announcement was made via Madrid that the King of Naples had applied for foreign intervention.

Among other questionable rumors was that a treaty, offensive and defensive, had been concluded between Naples, Rome, Austria, and all the deposed Italian sovereigns.

The latest accounts from Naples represent the utmost consternation. The troops were dispirited, and tumultuous manifestations were taking place. The royal family was packing up all their jewelry valuables, and strong indications that a great insurrection is looked for

At the latest dates Garabaldi's forces were moving on Palermo.

GREAT BRITAIN—The British government has issued a proclamation against enlistment for the Pope in Ireland, but does not interfere in the subscriptions for the Sicilian insurgents, the law officers of the crown not regarding it as illegal

English funds were very heavy under continental politics, but there was more steadiness at the close.

FRANCE—The Paris bourse had been greatly depressed, but closed firmer. Rentes 68f.80c.

The French minister at Naples had asked for four ships of war, and the vessels had been sent.

The French fleet were about to sail for the Levant

There were vague and unauthentic rumors of a new French loan for military purposes

ITALY—Theodore Parker died at Florence on the 10th.

It was reported that Lamoriciere had made a forward movement with the Papal troops, and 5 000 Piedmontese troops had embarked from Genoa to check him.

It was positively ascertained that the French army of Rome had received orders to evacuate that city.

It is said that the Sardinian government had ordered the garrisons of Central Italy to march rapidly towards the pontifical frontiers.

London, Saturday.—The Championship—Bell's Life, of this morning announces that a meeting took place between Sayers and Heenan, at that office, yesterday, to discuss measures for terminating the dispute between them, as to the possession of the champion's belt It was ultimately agreed that two new belts, exact counterparts of the one so much coveted should be made. The money for the purchase to be raised by public subscription; each of the candidates was to head the list for that to be held by his opponent. The old belt will remain in possession of the proprietor of Bell's Life, to be fought for by whoever may aspire to the honor of wearing it. Sayers has engaged to retire from the prize ring.

SPAIN.—General Concha had been elected president of the Spanish senate, and decorated with the order of the Golden Fleece.

The army of Africa entered Madrid amid much enthusiasm

RUSSIA—The Austrian government had stated that the British ambassador to Russia, on receipt of Gortchakoff's communication relative to Turkey lodged a formal protest against it, but this was not so. He only received the communication under reserve, by stating that he intended to refer it to his government for instructions in the matter.

A late dispatch says that England would not interfere.

A letter from Garabaldi explains that the steamers used by him were taken possession of forcibly, and not chartered.

Garabaldi had issued proclamations to the Romans and Neapolitans, calling them to revolt.

Palermo dispatches of the 13th say that in five churches, at the termination of mass, shouts of Italy forever! Liberty forever! &c, were raised. In the evening, the populace, to the number of 10 000, assembled. The police were unable to disperse them, and the troops were called out, and fired on the people, killing four and wounding ten. Several persons were arrested.

There was some excitement in Florence, owing to the appearance of placards in favor of the ex-grand duke.

There were rumors of the intention of an attempt at the recovery of his power.

The garrison was strengthened, and the national guard called out

A defalcation, on a small scale has been discovered against the cashier of Panky & Co's bank, of London, but no prosecution was made.

An influential deputation, headed by Milner Gibson, had laid before Lord Palmerston the plans for Col Shaffner's telegraph to America, via the Faroe islands and Ireland

The Russian Grand Duke Nicholas was on a visit to the Emperor Napoleon

A report that France had offered pecuniary indemnity to Switzerland was unfounded.

Austria refuses to admit Piedmont to the conference, on the ground that Cavour had declared she intended to take no part in the dispute between France and Switzerland.

The Papal troops are continually concentrating at Gubio.

It is stated that the date is fixed for the French evacuation of Rome, and the first detachment will leave shortly.

The King of Naples had subscibed a million scudi to the Papal loan.

The Prussian chambers had passed the government project for the war credit—315 against 21

Russia is said to have collected at Nicolai a large number of transports.

Albany, May 28.

Coming to their Senses.—Hon Jno Cramer, delegate at large on the Wood ticket at the Charleston convention, and the representative man of the Wood-Dickinson movement in this city, has written a letter that he has become perfectly satisfied that Stephen A. Douglas is the only man the Baltimore convention can present with any hope of success. This letter is regarded here as an indication of alarm on the part of the Dickinson men. It is said that it will be followed by other similar demonstrations.

New Castle, Del, May 28

Rendering an Account—Messrs Bayard and Whitely gave account of their stewardship at Charleston, last night, and were sustained, and were also instructed by the county convention to resume their seats at Baltimore, provided the nationality be restored by the action of a sufficient portion of the regular delegations from the seceding States.

Portrait of Lincoln.—Mr. Douglas, in his speech at Ottawa, Aug. 21st 1858, gives the following graphic sketch of his competitor Abe Lincoln:

"In the remarks I have made on this platform, (the Republican platform made at Springfield, Ill., in 1854,) and the position of Mr Lincoln upon it, I mean nothing personally disrespectful or unkind to that gentleman. I have known him for nearly twenty-five years. There were many points of sympathy between us when we first got acquainted. We were both comparatively boys, and both struggling with poverty in a strange land. I was a school teacher in the town of Manchester, and he was a flourishing grocery keeper in the town of Salem. He was more successful in his occupation than I was in mine, and hence more fortunate in this word's goods. Lincoln is one of those peculiar men who perform with admirable skill everything which they undertake. I made as good a school teacher as I could, and when a cabinet maker I made a good bedstead and tables, although my old boss said I succeeded better with bureaus and secretaries than with any thing else; but I believe that Lincoln was always more successful in business than I, for his business enabled him to get into the Legislature. I met him there, however, and had a sympathy with him, because of the uphill struggle we both had in life. He was then just as good at telling an anecdote as now. He could beat any of the boys wrestling, or running a foot-race in pitching quoits or tossing a copper; could ruin more liquor than all the boys of the town together, and the dignity and impartiality with which he presided at a horse-race or fist fight, excited the admiration and won the praise of everybody that was present and participated. I sympathized with him, because he was struggling with difficulties, and so was I Mr Lincoln served with me in the legislature in 1836, when we both retired, and he subsided, or became submerged, and he was lost sight of as a public man for some years In 1846, when Wilmot introduced his celebrated proviso, and the Abolition tornado swept over the country, Lincoln again turned up as a member of Congress from the Sangamon district I was then in the Senate of the United States, and was glad to welcome my old friend and companion Whilst in Congress, he distinguished himself by his opposition to the Mexican war, taking the side of the common enemy against his own country; and when he returned home he found that the indignation of the people followed him everywhere, and he was again submerged or obliged to retire into private life, forgotten by his former friends. He came up again in 1854, just in time to make this Abolition or Black Republican platform, in company with Giddings, Lovejoy, Chase and Fred Douglass, for the Republican party to stand upon."

A Vile Practice.—An exposure was made in the United States Senate a few days ago which reflects no credit upon the fairness and good taste of Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts. It appears that a considerable portion of his speech on the proposed law for the suppression of the slave trade, was not delivered in the Senate, but was published in the Washington Globe These sentences in which he severely reflected upon the conduct of the Southern judiciary were never heard in the Senate, and no opportunity was given at the time for a reply. This speech was also furnished to the Associated Press, in slips of proof from a prominent Republican newspaper.

The Texas Delegates—The Detroit Free Press tells how the Texas delegation was manufactured:

The delegation pretending to represent Texas was got up at Grand Haven in this State. The names of the delegates, as they appeared in the published list, were: Dunbar Henderson, James Scott, J Strauss, G Fitch, delegates at large; E. J Garrison, Williams Seagrist, M T E Chandler, A J Yonkum, district delegates"—not one of whom was ever within a thousand miles of Texas. Of these fellows "Dunbar Henderson" is none other than Don C Henderson, the editor of a one horse Black Republican paper at Allegan in this State; "James Scott" James P Scott, the Black Republican County Clerk of Ottawa county; "J Strauss" is simply J Strauss, the keeper of a small beer saloon in the village of Grand Haven; M T Chandler is a resident of Canada East and is not now, and never was, a citizen of the United States; but at the time the movement was started he was on a visit to Grand Haven, and readily into it The others, we believe, did not enter the Convention, but all of them are residents of Grand Haven and its immediate vicinity. Henderson was one of the Secretaries of the Convention, and Chandler, the British subject, was one of the Vice Presidents.

We would add that another of the above list—Mr G Fitch—was and still is a resident of this city; and we have reason to believe never saw Texas

Honest John Letcher.—The Governor Virginia, "honest John Letcher," has recently written a letter on the present aspect of political affairs in the Democratic party. In it he says:

"First, I still approve the doctrine of Congressional non-intervention on the question of slavery I consider it the only safe position for the South

"Second, I disapprove of the course of Alabama and other Southern States in seceding from the Charleston Convention. I do not pretend to question their motives, but I consider their action ill advised"

The country contains but few men whose opinions are as valuable as those of Gov. Letcher, and the above brief quotations from his letter show what he thinks, and his views will have due weight in Virginia and other Southern States.

Official Change on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad.—We understand that the following appointments and changes have been made by Geo. W. Cass Esq., President and General Superintendent of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, to take effect on the 1st of June; Jos. H MOORE, now Superintendent of the Eastern Division, to take charge of the business and property of the Company at Chicago and in the North-West; AUGUSTUS BRADLEY, present Secretary, to act as Superintendent of the Eastern Division till further notice, his office to be removed to Penn Station Pittsburg; W H. Barnes is transferred to the office of the President and the General Superintendent; J K Smith to be paymaster in the place of W. H. Barnes; John J. Houston, General Freight Agent, will establish his office permanently at Pittsburg. John Zeigler, cashier at Penn station to act as station agent, at that station, until further notice.

J C Davis to be station agent at Fort Wayne.

☞ In the contested election case of Wallace and Galick, for the office of Sheriff of Marion county, the Supreme Court has decided that the office of Mayor is a judicial one, and that the incumbent is not eligible to any other except a judicial office during the term for which he was elected Mayor. The Sheriff's office is therefore given to Mr Galick, with the emoluments arising therefrom.

Douglas Cane.—We have had recently made from a saw log cut thirty years and three months since, by Stephen A Douglas, when he attended a saw mill nights and Saturdays and taught school the balance of the time. The log was somewhat decayed yet the heart was sound, and from which we obtained a beautiful cane. The remainder of the log will be sent to Baltimore for inspection by the Southern delegates—Decatur Magnet.

Wind Wagons—Some time ago we mentioned that Mr Andy Dawson, of Oscaloosa, was constructing a wind wagon, in which he intended to go to Pike's Peak. Since that time, the machine has been finished, and realized the most sanguine expectations of the projector, carrying him through in twenty days. Encouraged by this success, other parties in the same town set about the construction of the same kind of wagons, and on Monday a party of eight started out on the prairies to try one which had just been finished. The wind was blowing a gale at the time, and every thing worked to a charm. The occupants, gliding swiftly over the prairies, were delighting themselves with anticipations of a speedy and comfortable trip to the mines, when the velocity of the vehicle created a lively alarm for their safety. The wagon sped onward before the driving wind, faster and faster yet, until the axle-trees broke and deposited them all upon the ground, and a somewhat damaged condition, from broken heads, bruised limbs and bodies—The speed of the machine is said to have been forty miles per hour. We suggest the use of brakes.—Leavenworth Herald.

The Republican papers are very busy just now in publishing the speech that Lincoln delivered in New York, last winter, when the faithful were charged the regular circus rate of twenty-five admittance fee. It should be entitled "The Great Two-Shilling Speech."

Mr. Lincoln is now said to stand six feet four inches in his stocking feet. A month ago he was only six feet three; this shows the effect of a presidential nomination upon physical growth. It is more rapid than ordinary guano.

Dr. Roback's Remedies.

We publish in another column of to-day's paper, an article copied from the Cincinnati Times, descriptive of Dr. Roback's extensive medical establishment in that city By the way Dr. Roback's Remedies have obtained a great and deserved popularity with all classes. It has been but a short time since these Remedies were introduced into our section of country; yet Dr. Brennan, Dr. Roback's agent in this place, informs us that his sales of the Blood Pills and Blood Purifier now far exceed those of all other medicines for which he is agent, combined.—The reason for this, is, that they have stood the test of practical experience We know this not only from the mouths of others but we have used them in our own family with the very best results. For all diseases of the blood generally, whether proceeding from sickness or from natural weakness, indigestion or all kindred ailments, we recommend the Scandinavian Remedies as the very best medicines extant They are destined to achieve, not an ephemeral success but a permanent and deserved reputation, which will render them a necessity in every family.—Napoleon O, North West, March 2.

CLEVELAND
WOOL DEPOT.
GRADES

HAVE been established over seven years and are well and favorably known to all the leading manufacturers of New England. This fact has enabled us to procure orders for

1,000,000 POUNDS

of the new clip. Our consignors may therefore realize the

CASH FOR THEIR WOOL

the day it is received and graded.
This arrangement will enable holders of Wool to procure from

3 to 5 Cents More a Pound

for medium and fine wools in fair condition, than in any other way it can be sold, for there is not a manufacturer who will not pay the advance for the specific grades he wants. This affords

Unsurpassed Advantages

To Wool Growers and Merchants to procure their money without any delay, and the

for their wool.
Those of our friends who are not desirous to secure their money at once, but prefer to wait for higher prices, which are usually procured later in the season, may depend upon the same attention to their interests which has been exercised for the last seven years
We are thankful for the liberal favors extended to us through the financial reverses of the past, and shall endeavor to merit increased confidence and patronage.
Sacks will be sent as heretofore to parties wishing. Also, a very excellent article of wool Twine, at from 10 to 15 cents per pound, reasonable discounts made by the ton. GOODALE & CO

DR. ROBACK'S
BLOOD PURIFIER & PILLS!
THE GREAT
Scandinavian Vegetable Remedies

To Those who Think and Reason.

The intelligent in this country are always ready to test the merits of a prominent discovery or invention, and if satisfied of its excellence, to adopt, approve, and recommend it. It is to this thinking reasoning class, who always look before they leap, and whose honest and rational judgment gives tone to public opinion that DR ROBACK'S BLOOD PURIFIER AND PILLS owe their immense success. When this

GREAT AMBASSADOR OF HEALTH

First announced that his Scandinavian Remedies were infallible in Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Diseases, Sexual Weakness, Scrofula, Premature old age, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fits, Hemorrhoids or Piles, Weak Stomach, Colic, Diarrhea, etc., he stated the manner in which they operated. Their actual effects were compared by sagacious men, with the distinguished Physician's statements, and it was found that every stage of the progress of cure, was precisely as he had described it. The result was that the mind of the country became interested, and that persons of the highest standing in every city and town in the Union, patronized the preparations, and admitted the claims of the illustrious Swede, to be the First Medical Discoverer of the age.
THE BLOOD PURIFIER AND PILLS are now universally recommended by well informed and candid persons, as an immediate cure for

INDIGESTION,
Costiveness, diseases of the Kidneys, Cramps in the Stomach, Wind, Colic, Pain between the Shoulders, Nausea, Headache,
LIVER COMPLAINT.
Jaundice, Pain in the right side, Loss of appetite Sleeplessness, Nightmare,
GENERAL DEBILITY,
Nervous Tremors, Fainting Fits, Epilepsy, Mental Irritation, Despondency, Wasting of the Flesh,
SCROFULA,
Sore Leg, Ulcers on the body, Pimples on the face, General Eruptions, Boils, Mercurial Sores, Glandular Swellings, Secondary Symptoms,
NEURALGIA,
Rheumatism, Lumbago, Stiff Joints, Paralysis, Vitus' Dance, Nervous Twitchings,
FEMALE COMPLAINTS,
Sexual Weakness, Barrenness, Disease of the Womb Weakness of the Back, Loins and Limbs,
AUTOGRAPH LETTERS.
Of distinguished men in every profession, warmly recommending the preparations may be seen at Dr. Roback's Office.

In the SCANDINAVIAN VEGETABLE BLOOD PILLS are united the three great medicinal properties which Physicians have hitherto tried in vain to combine in one preparation. They relieve the bowels, purify the bile and the blood, and invigorate the constitution at one and the same time. To this fact all who try them will subscribe. The absence of minerals, and of every stupefying drug, renders them harmless, even to the most delicate female, or the feeblest child. No one can doubt their superiority after one single trial—they are not only better but, in fact, cheaper than any other Pills, for it takes a less number of them to produce a better effect.
Price of the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, $1 per bottle, or $5 per half dozen; Scandinavian Blood Pills, 25 cents per box, or five for $1.
☞ Read Dr Roback's Special Notices and Certificates, published in a conspicuous part of this paper from time to time. Dr Roback's Medical Almanac and Family adviser containing a great amount of interesting and valuable Medical information can be had gratis of any of his agents throughout the country

CARLISLE, Warren Co., O., March 8, 1858.

Dr C. W. Roback—Dear Sir: For the benefit of suffering humanity, permit me to say that I have found your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills a sure cure for Indigestion and Liver Complaint I have suffered from the above mentioned diseases for five years and have tried a great many physicians but all to no purpose. I was advised by a friend to try your Blood Purifier and Pills and did so; I was living in Cincinnati at the time, and I went to your office and purchased one bottle of the Purifier and one box of Pills to commence with, and bless the day I found your valuable medicines, for I am enjoying good health at present, and feel confident that the cure is permanent. Let others buy and take what they please, as for me, give me the Blood Purifier and Pills for all chronic diseases which arise from impure blood, or derangement of the digestive organs. I take no other medicines, and have not for the last eighteen months.
Most truly, V. DUBOIS.

The Faculty of the Institution consisting of PROF EGBERT JACKSON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London
DR ROBERT HERBERT,
Late of Paris, a member of the Society of Friends.
M. EUGENE VELPEAU,
Late of the London and Paris Hospitals

Guarantee, under a penalty of $500, a complete cure of every sexual Disease, however aggravated by neglect, and without mercury

We feel perfectly safe in making this offer, because we will not undertake any case that we are not sure of curing

THE PHYSICIANS of the National Dispensary HAVE DISCOVERED the ONLY REMEDY in the WORLD from all the effects of early imprudence. Relief in twenty four hours. A cure warranted in from one to four weeks.

Married persons, or young people contemplating matrimony, who are aware, or fearing any physical weakness, deformities, or organic debility, should make application at once.

They who place themselves under our care, may rely religiously in our honor as gentlemen that their secret will be inviolate, and that a CERTAIN CURE will follow of the following diseases:

Syphilis Gonorrhea, Self-Abuse, Weakness of the Back, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Low Spirits Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those Dreadful and Destructive Practices which render marriage impossible, and destroy both body and Mind.

The Mountain of Light, or Medical Protector,

A book of near 300 PAGES, containing full information about all private diseases, and a guide for those who are married or thinking of marriage, will be sent on receipt of 53 cents. This book contains the most valuable information in the language—Useful alike to male or female, but should not be in the hands of very young persons. as it contains information that might be perverted to unworthy ends. Also a full and explicit key to all the hidden and delightful secrets of Marriage, Love and Beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language. Price 50 cents—one of the cheapest books in the world. If health could be estimated in money, the new facts contained in this book for the prevention of ill health, would be cheap at the above forfeiture Send for a Circular fully describing it.

Very liberal terms to those who buy in large or small quantities to sell again made known on application. The low price at which the book is sold [50 cents] renders it the quickest selling book in the market. Special inducements to clubs.

Every letter must contain six cents in stamps for which will be sent a FULL written Reply, also, THE DISPENSARY CIRCULAR, a truly valuable advisory document for old or young, married or unmarried and especially for all who have made themselves OLD YOUNG MEN by a certain secret practice. It contains more valuable matter than many books

M. Velpeau's Beautifying Powder.—It imparts to the complexion an exquisite bloom and transparency, and effectually prevents the formation of wrinkles, blotches, freckles, pimples, wens, etc., etc

DR. JACKSON'S Female Monthly Pills, invaluable in Female Irregularities, but not advisable to be used during pregnancy, lest the should mar the hope of offspring. Used in the Doctor's private practice for 30 years. Price $1 forwarded by mail.

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventitive, is the only article in the world that without inconvenience or danger, will infallibly prevent conception. Thousands of married ladies too feeble to bear children except at the hazard of life have had reason to be thankful for this invention. It resembles no other preventives in use, and is superior to all. Forwarded by mail to any address.

HOSTETTER'S # STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

New York, Sept 3d, 1858

I have analyzed a specimen of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, received from Mr Charles Wharton, Jr. of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whiskey

JAMES R. CHILTON, Analytical Chemist

Boston, March 7th, 1859

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated The fine flavor of this Whiskey is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully,

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

MARRIED, DIVORCED, AND RE-MARRIED.

A few years ago, a young and beautiful lady, living not a thousand miles from Boston, had two suitors one poor and the other rich, the latter having less favor in the eyes of his mistress than his rival. And as is also usually the case in such instances, the young lady's preference conflicted with that of her relatives and friends. So decided were they in their opposition to a match with the poor mechanic, that the young lady finally consented to be the rich man's wife. They lived happily together. But in the progress of years reverses came; the best calculations can not always put off misfortune; and her husband announced one day that his failure had swept away his property. But he did not blow his brains out, nor take poison, nor did she go back to her mother, or regret the day she had ever married him. No. Both were too sensible to act so foolishly. He spent a few days with creditors in arranging matters, and then the couple moved away very quietly. In a week everybody knew that Mr. —— had failed, and a week later the gossips added to their statements the fact (for a wonder!) that he had gone to California to try and repair his fortunes, leaving his wife and two young children with means enough for many months to come.

A year passed, and Mrs —— heard from her husband but once, and then only a few lines, which accompanied a small remittance—and announced that his stay might be longer than he had anticipated.

Another year went by, and only one more letter came, this time full business, and stating the period of his return more indefinitely.

Then came a blank of several years, with no letter, no money, no news of any kind from her husband.

The tongue of scandal was not silent during this period of doubt, but every circumstance reflecting on the fidelity of the husband to the wife was magnified, till she was led to believe herself deserted. Without means, she had to depend on her friends for her subsistance.

Thrown occasionally into the society of her former rejected suitor, a part of her old love returned, and believing that he had remained single for her sake, and having nothing to hope from her missing husband, she finally applied for and obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion.

One can imagine what her feelings were when she learned that her former lover had never, since his rejection by her and her marriage to another, cherished other feelings for her than those of friendship.

Her disappointment was sharpened with anguish when, a few days after, she received a letter from her husband, stating that he had at last accumulated a fortune beyond his most sanguine expectations, and was then on his way home, with a closing request that she would meet him at New York. She gathered from the letter that money had been sent her often during those years, but which she had never received. She knew her husband, if affectionate, was also proud, and feared that he would never forgive the slight involved in her act of obtaining a divorce. But she finally resolved on a full confession, and on the day of arrival of the steamer, she was the first to greet her late husband, who, after hearing all the particulars of her conduct during his absence, was at first inclined to refuse his forgiveness, but finally decided to overlook the past, with its mistakes and errors, and again accompanied to the altar the object of his early affections.

A Practical Joke.—A Portland (Maine) correspondent of a Boston paper says:

I find that people not here like a little fun and can laugh over it as heartily as in other places. A "love affair" occurred here recently which has made a great deal of sport. A youth became desperately in love with one of the fair ones of this city, who had but just turned "sweet sixteen." His passion was not reciprocated, but the young lady gave him some encouragement, "just for the fun of it." The "fond parents" were wroth, and sent the sinning daughter to a distance from the city. A correspondence sprung up between the lover and some young bloods, who, for sport, assumed to write billet doux in the name of the lady beloved, but entirely without her knowledge. A plan for elopement and marriage was the consequence. By the help of his young friends every thing was arranged. The marriage was to take place in the tobacco factory and the happy pair were to spend the first night in that fragrant locality. A youngster of suitable size and proportion to personate the young lady, and closely veiled, got stealthily into the carriage, as the triumphant lover appeared at the appointed time and place. They drove to the tobacco factory, where friends were waiting.

The heart of the person who was to solemnize the marriage, failed him, and the play was very near coming to an abrupt termination. A youth of seventeen years, however, the son of a Maine man who, in his youth, had been an equal adept in roguery, came to the rescue, performed the ceremony "bountifully," and made a touching prayer for the happiness of the loving pair. The bride retired and the bridegroom had put off the most of his clothes, when the arrival of the enraged father of the bride was announced, accompanied by several friends and armed to the teeth. The bridegroom and his friends were equally well armed, and the discharges of revolvers (loaded with powder) were rapid and terrible. The latter appeared to get the worst of the fight, and the bridegroom was compelled to fly through the streets at the dead hour of the night, with little more than his shirt upon his back. A more absurd affair could scarcely be imagined, and in all its details it was so supremely ridiculous that one would not suppose any body could be thus imposed upon for a moment; yet, so well were the parts played that the "bridegroom" swallowed the whole, and actually consulted counsel next day as to how he should get possession of his wife! When the truth was revealed to him and he was convinced that it was truth, he immediately left for parts unknown, probably never to return.

The venerable Peter Cartwright had taken a seat for Rochester, and, during some fifteen minutes previous to the time the cars left the depot, the Doctor was giving, in his honest manner, his opinion of both Stephen A. Douglas and Abraham Lincoln. He had finished, the "Little Giant," and was saying of "Honest Abe" that he is a good citizen, upright, and in "point of talent is a second-rate lawyer." Just at that moment in came a bouncing, hot Republican, with his platform in his hand, and took a seat near the Doctor. He came just in time to hear the remark in regard to Mr Lincoln's talent, and it roused him wonderfully. He interrupt the Doctor, (not knowing him,) and, proceeded, under a rather high pressure of steam, to inform him that he was mistaken on that point. After he had blown off somewhat, the Doctor said: "Well, my friend, I don't know but you are more familiar with the character and history of both Mr Douglas and Mr Lincoln than I am. For myself, I can only say that I have lived in the same county with both of them for twenty five years; that I gave to Mr Douglas the first office he was ever favored with; that I have myself twice run in opposition to Mr Lincoln for a seat in the Legislature of Illinois, and beaten him both times, and can do it again, if I will." By this time, you may well suppose that the laughter drowned whatever else the Doctor might have said.—Buffalo Courier.

☞ Judge B. was once obliged to "double" with an Irishman in a crowded hotel, when the following conversation ensued:

"Pat, you would have remained a long time in the old country before you would have slept with a Judge, would you not?"

"Yes, yer Honor," said Pat, "and I think yer Honor would have been a long time in the 'ould counthry' before ye'd been a Judge, too."

[From the Boston Courier]

Reception of the News in Boston.—Friday, May 18, will long be remembered by the men of Massachusetts, as the day on which the Republican party was executed. Since the death of Webster, we have not seen men so sober and so sad, in this city. Had the capitol on Beacon Hill, from some hidden cause, sunk into the crust of the earth—had the court house turned round—had the city hall and the old state house moved arm-in-arm on a visit of ceremony to the custom house—all these unnatural things combined could not have produced so profound a sensation as did the unlooked for announcement that Abe Lincoln, of Illinois, had received the nomination of the Republican convention, at Chicago. Such was the intense sadness of the Republicans—so real was their depression and woe, that Democrats could not find it in their hearts to make light of their affliction. "What possessed them, to nominate Lincoln?" inquired a Republican merchant. "Availability," answered a shabby man, whose face was half hidden in a Kossuth hat. "And are the great interests of this great nation to be given over to a man we do not know, because some one says he is 'available'?" muttered the merchant, as he walked off. The streets, during the afternoon, were dotted with groups of serious looking men—mainly Republicans—who talked of nothing but "the blunder." The nomination of Lincoln has not received the unqualified approbation of any person, so far as we have heard. "It is a fact that cannot be disputed,"—said one orator, to a group assembled in the post office—"Mr Seward has the hearts of the Republican masses in New England; they have long been familiar with his name—have read his speeches, and know that whenever he spoke, he spoke ably and like a statesman; and it will be hard work to convince them that the public good required that he should be thrust aside by such a man as Abe Lincoln." "Sir," said a business politician, "you are a sentimentalist. The masses have no rights that politicians are called upon to respect. If Mr Seward wanted to succeed, he should have gone for humbug." And thus the groups argued until nightfall. The result of the ballots will be found in the telegraph column. It will be seen that our sister State won the second prize, and that the Republican standard bearers for 1860 are Abe Lincoln of Illinois, and Hannibal Hamlin of Maine. No selection of candidates could have been more unfortunate for Massachusetts. The women and children laugh at it. Still, there was a salute of one hundred guns; but whether it was to signalize the death or life of the party, time will tell.

Extremes Meeting.—A prominent delegate from Ohio to the Chicago Convention, on his return from the meeting of that body, informed us that in his opinion, and the sentiment was generally entertained at Chicago, the position taken by Hon. W. L. Yancey, at Charleston, was the true construction of the Constitution in reference to the right and duty of Congress to legislate for the Territories, upon the slavery issue. The doctrines enunciated by Mr. Yancey upon that question are those held by the Republican party.—The extremists of the South and the extremists of the North, upon this issue, hold the same principle. The former believe it to be the duty of Congress to prohibit it. If this doctrine is confirmed by the people of the country, what will be the result? It will be nothing more or less than "irrepressible conflict" in our national Legislature to either prohibit or protect slavery in the Territories. The doctrine of non-intervention removes this vexed question out of Congress, and prevents it from being a foot-ball for ambitious politicians to play with. It makes the question as to the rights of person and property a judicial one, and gives to the people of the Territories, beyond this the right to control this domestic institution. Upon a full discussion of the whole question in 1856, the people of the country decided in favor of non-intervention, and to that doctrine they will adhere in 1860.—State Sentinel.

Washington, May 21.

From Washington.—In compliance with a resolution of the House, the President communicated to that body a report of the Attorney General, showing the amount expended toward defence on private land claims in California, the details of the expenditure and the result. It appears from this document that incredible numbers of fraudulent claims to land in California had been fabricated and sustained by the most unblushing perjury. Many of them had been approved by the Board of Land Commissioners and by the district courts of California. No less than twenty-five appeals of these cases were heard and decided by the Supreme Court in favor of the government at the last term. The amount involved was not less than $160,000,000! One claim was for 36,000 square miles of land; another for 450 square miles, and the famous Santillan claim was for a part of the city of San Francisco, worth about $10,000,000.

The Japanese commissioners, attended by several members of their suite, and the naval commission proceeded to the State department at noon, to-day, where their treaty with this government was duly ratified. The copies of the documents were carefully compared, and certificates of correctness, of which there were several signed and exchanged. On their way to the department, the treaty was borne on the shoulders of their servants.

Secretary Cass, during the diplomatic proceedings, informed the commissioners that it afforded him great pleasure to exchange the ratifications of the treaty with them, and expressed a fervent hope that the two nations would be bound still closer in friendship.

The commissioners reciprocated the compliments, and expressed their obligations to the venerable Secretary, and spoke of the kind attention bestowed on them, and trusted that peace between the countries might be everlasting.

Territorial Items.—At Lawrence a buck negro was brought before a black-republican justice, and it was proven that the negro had in his possession several yoke of oxen, stolen from a white man, but, because in that locality a white man is not considered as good as a negro, the latter was pronounced guiltless. At the same delectable city at Lawrence a negro stole a set of harness from his white brother, Gen Jim Lane, who, though incensed at Sambo's ingratitude, refrained from any manifestations thereof, out of respect for the color of the thief. Still further from the city of abolitionism we have the announcement that a son of the famous Dr. Day was under arrest for stealing a wagon. Can a corrupt fountain give forth pure water.

Old Line Democrats of Mississippi in Motion.—A call has been issued by the National Democrats of Columbus, Miss., calling upon the Old Line Democrats to appoint delegates to a convention to meet at Jackson for the appointment of delegates to Baltimore. It will be held on the 6th of June. That is a movement in the right direction. It is a question with the Democrats of the South, of the most vital moment, and that is, shall they, by following YANCEY and company, disrupt the Democratic party, and thereby elect Mr. SEWARD President of the United States?—The Old Line Democrats of Mississippi intend to place themselves in no equivocal position on that subject before the country.—Cin. En.

Future Conventions.—Much of the trouble at the Charleston Convention was occasioned by the large number of delegates and the unwieldy character of the body. The committee on whom was devolved the duty of adopting regulations for future conventions, agreed to recommend the reduction of the number of delegates one half, or one for each District and two for the State at large. The place and time of the next Convention is to be left to the National Committee. The committee had no opportunity to report their action previous to the adjournment at Charleston, but will doubtless do so at Baltimore, and their recommendations will be concurred in. A body of three hundred men will be much more likely to go along harmoniously than one of six hundred.

Escape and Recapture of Prisoners from the New Penitentiary.—One Man Shot.—From a private letter of A J Mullen, the Prison Physician, we obtained the following details of the escape and shooting at the Northern Indiana Prison, mentioned yesterday morning.

A company of prisoners were engaged in planting corn on the Prison lands in charge of John Lane, a young man, twenty-four years of age, appointed a guard from Clinton county. He had the superintendence of the farm hands. About eight o'clock, in the morning, the whole squad of prisoners in his charge suddenly made a break. Lane quickly jumped into their midst and ordered them to stop several times, but they kept on running. He drew his Navy revolver and fired on the leader, a man named McGraw, killing him instantly. The ball passed through his body. McGraw was a desperate man, committed for burglary and an old offender.

Lane then caught one of the fugitives and tied him securely and delivered him to the guards at the prison. Several guards besides Lane were mounted quickly, and in pursuit of the others, and in a short time succeeded in taking all but one. Captain Buford caught two of them hid in a swamp. The remaining man, named Bennett, could not be found. The most of the guards, tired with the chase of the day, were willing to give up, but Lane was determined to have his man, and started again into the pine swamps, south of the prison grounds and the city. About dark he came in with his fugitive, having found him in a secluded place, trying to bury himself in the sand to avoid being seen. Lane has acted with much presence of mind and intrepidity in the whole matter and has won laurels. He should be properly rewarded by the prison officers. It it is hoped that the tragical death of McGraw, resulting from this escape, will deter many others and may save many lives hereafter by the terrible lesson it will give the others. A spot on the side hill overlooking the prison has been selected for a burial ground, and the funeral, at which all the prisoners will be present, will take place to-morrow.—State Sentinel.

Woman's Rights and Divorce.—We published yesterday the series of resolutions offered in the National Woman's Rights Convention at Cooper Institute, by Mrs. Stanton, which, although abounding in verbiage, placed the married relation upon a more liberal footing than business contracts in general, and proposed, virtually, to give the female member of the firm the privilege of breaking up the partnership whenever it becomes distasteful to her. The argument seems to have been that a girl is not, as a general rule, capable of selecting a husband, and that, therefore, when she finds that she has married a man that does not suit her, she is to save herself from the unhappiness of living with him by dissolving the family and setting up for herself. Our lawmakers, she said, have made a pit, and the innocent have fallen in; and now, she asked, will you make them stay in all their life as the penalty of one mis step? That is, if a girl marries a man to whom she afterwards takes a dislike, shall she be compelled by law to remain his wife?

Mrs Blackwell took a different view of the case, and Messrs Phillips and Garrison thought the resolutions unfit to go upon the record; but a majority of the women composing the Convention it seems agreed with Mrs Stanton, and so the resolutions were adopted; and thus the woman's rights movement has been identified with an exceedingly loose view of the marriage relation. There are persons who have been favorable to some of the reforms asked, who will be disgusted with this new dogma.—N. Y. Post, 12th.

Prosperous.

Thompson's Bank-note Reporter, in an article on the encouraging aspect of American woolen manufactures, says:

"We know of foreign houses who have been for several years past large importers of German and French cassimeres, who affirm that the past season witnessed their last efforts in that line.—Many of the goods have been sold at twenty-five per cent. less. The American goods are produced with such taste and skill by the best makers that the foreign goods can not interfere with them as formerly. The manufacturers are busy with their autumn goods, and promises are made of some choice and rich styles."

Notwithstanding all that, the Abolition Republicans demand a high protective tariff, and Pennsylvania delegates to Chicago, go wild over a plank in their platform to tax the farming and mechanical interests of the country, for the special benefit of their State!

A Harmonious Party.—The papers in the Republican interests having Whigh antecedents, are rejoicing over the passage of the tariff resolution by the Chicago Convention, which they interpret to mean protection to domestic industry—and in fact a protective tariff.

On the contrary, the New York Evening Post, a leading Republican organ, but devoted to free trade principles, construes the resolution to mean a "reciprocal free trade," and threatens to finish the Republican President when he shall have been elected, if he does not act upon that construction. It says:

"The construction we have placed upon this resolution we shall hold to firmly. If the Republican party should elect its candidate, he must act on that construction, or he will soon find himself encountered by an opposition by which he will be overwhelmed."

☞ There is a proposition before the Canadian Provincial Parliament to abolish all tolls upon the canals of Canada. It would cost the provinces only about $90,000 a year, and would do much to secure a larger share of the western trade than they now have. If the Erie canal and the New York railroads are taxed, and the Canadian thoroughfares are thrown open freely to the produce which is seeking the seaboard, the business relations of the west may be to a certain extent changed. It is very manifest that our Canadian neighbors are determined to make every effort to profit to the utmost by their facilities for reaching the trade of the Mississippi valley.

The "Irrepressible Conflict."—Mr Lincoln, the Republican candidate for President, in his speech at Columbus, Ohio, in September last, claimed the paternity of the "irrepressible conflict" sentiment. In that speech he said: "I do not believe Gov. SEWARD uttered that sentiment because I HAD DONE SO BEFORE, but because he reflected on this subject, and SAW THE TRUTH OF IT."—SEWARD simply placed in a bolder light the idea first "proclaimed" by LINCOLN. It is so seldom that the original inventor reaps the fruit of his labor, that we are disposed to put the "irrepressible saddle on the right horse, so that Abraham may have the full benefit of it. We think, however, that riding on a rail would be much pleasanter than riding on that saddle.—Cin. Enq.

The New Tariff Bill.—The New York Journal of Commerce, who has seen the new tariff bill, as it passed the House of Congress, and who is well acquainted with the details and operations of tariff acts, thus speaks of the present bill:

"The bill as it stands is a wonderful piece of mosaic—too voluminous for criticism in detail, but absurd and impracticable in nearly all its varied parts. If it were possible for such a bill to pass it would take all the legal talent of the party which concocted it at least twelve months of steady application to harmonize and explain its provisions, and would lead to more disputes and vexatious litigation than all the previous tariffs since the first revenue system was adopted. The Senate Committee will probably make an adverse report upon it, and it will then sink, we trust, to its deserved oblivion."

A Good Project.—We are informed that the Rev. Joseph A. Stephan and Mr John Ball, both of this city, have been appointed Commissioners to locate a Catholic Colony in the north-western part of this State, and that the appointment has been fully sanctioned and approved by the Bishop of Fort Wayne. The location is not yet made, the Commissioners having just received their appointment, but we understand they purpose making it forthwith, and will at once build a church and school house, together with such business structures as are requisite. This matter is of much importance to Lafayette, as it will bring into our immediate neighborhood several thousand thrifty German and Irish people, who will cultivate and make productive several thousands of acres which now lay waste. The location will probably be made in either Jasper, White or Benton county. Success to the project; for it is a good and laudable one.—Lafayette Journal.

☞ The New York Tribune gives the following versified description of a New York Justice:

"The Judge was a very clever man, and a jovial Judge was he;
"The Judge was good at a game of ball, and just as good at a spree;
"The Judge was fond of whisky-skin and of every kind of sport;
"The Judge was au fait at every thing but attending to his Court;
"The Judge was a remarkable man, in his own peculiar way;
"The Judge ne'er forgot to neglect his Court, and ne'er forgot his pay."

☞ We have a faint idea that a Judge might be found in Indiana, who might have sat for the above portrait. Have any of our readers seen him?

Dr. Hayes's Arctic Expedition.—There is now no doubt that Dr. Hayes will be ready to start on his Artic expedition by the 15th of June, if the citizens of New York fulfil the promises of assistance that they have made to him. His visit to Boston was so successful that he felt warranted in purchasing a vessel of 133 tons, and is making every preparation for her equipment and outfit, confidently relying upon the completion of his fund. The little vessel will be specially strengthened by numerous braces in her hold, and her bows will be fitted with iron plates. Dr. Hayes has selected as his sailing captain, Capt. McCormick, who has been engaged in the British merchant-service about seventeen years, and has had some experience in "high latitudes" on one or more voyages to the Amoor river.

Railroad Bridge Demolished by the Storm.—The tornado which visited this section on Monday afternoon, appears to have swept across Illinois, and done no little damage in its course.—The railway bridge across Rock River, on the Rock Island Road, was lifted from its piers and entirely demolished by the wind. The structure was about twelve hundred feet in length. It was substantially built of heavy timbers, resting upon stone piers. Over one half the bridge taken out of the center, was destroyed, the heavy timbers being twisted and broken like wisps of straw.—The damage to the company is from $25,000 to $30,000.

A Man and his Wife Robbing Henroosts—A new use for the Hooped Skirt.—For some time past the residents of the country towns in the vicinity of Brooklyn have been the victims of fowl robberies, and the attention of the police authorities having been called to the fact, a strict watch has been kept for the arrest of the perpetrators. The police of the Fifth precinct, having occasion to suspect a man named William Mills, who, with his wife, proceeding on a wagon in the direction of Jamaica. Officers Lyno, Lee and Murphy were set to watch for his return; and at an early hour this morning the wagon hove in sight, and was immediately hailed by the officers, who demanded to see its contents; but, to their surprise the only occupants of the wagon were Mills and his wife. The officers were about to leave, when a chuckling noise, proceeding from under Mrs. Mills' amplo skirt, caused them to look in that quarter, when no less than fourteen sprightly looking chickens were found. Mills and his wife were taken into custody.—N. Y. Post.

"Suppose it was Monday."—In a Dissenting Chapel, near Barnardcastle, a few Sundays ago, two farmers met. One of them, on his way to the chapel, had noticed a fine calf in his neighbor's field, which circumstance gave rise to the following conversation. Addressing his friend in a tone which he intended for a whisper, but which was loud enough to be heard for several yards around, he said: "Tommy, supposing it was Monday, what wud ye tak for your calf?" "Why," replied the other, "supposing it was Monday, aw wud tak two pund fifteen." "Supposing it was Monday, aw'll gi' two pund ten." "Supposing it was Monday, then; ye shall hae't." The bargain was thus concluded, and the calf, we are informed, was duly delivered on the following day.

Mr. Williamson, while riding near Petersburg, Virginia, was accosted by a woman who appeared weary and asked a ride. He complied; she handed up a basket, and was about to step in herself, when, thinking he saw masculine indications, he dropped his whip and asked her to pick it up, and then quickly started his horse. The basket contained pistols and a bowie-knife. Mr. W. had a large sum of money with him.

Congressional Convention.

The Democrats of the 10th Congressional District will hold a Convention at Kendallville, Noble County, on the 29th day of June next, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

It is suggested that nominations for State Senator and Judge of the Court of Common Pleas might also be made at the same time and place, (for Districts within this Congressional District) and that provision be made for such nominations in the appointment of delegates.

The Gubernatorial Canvass.—Messrs. Hendricks and Lane, candidates for Governor, addressed our citizens on Tuesday last. Mr Hendricks made a decidedly good impression, and far exceeded the expectations of his friends, while it is not too much to say that Col. Lane fell as far short of what had been looked for, and grievously disappointed his party. Taking his speech here as a fair sample of his powers, he is certainly much overrated as a public speaker, and presents few claims to the support of intelligent citizens for the high office to which he aspires. His manner and language are of the high pressure, highfalutin, clap-trap order, while the matter—if matter there was in the speech—is beneath criticism. He shrieked for Kansas, was emphatic on the colored gentleman, and repeated all the stale calumnies against the democratic party, but failed to show any good fruits of republicanism, or give any plausible reason why that party should be placed in power. His whole speech was a mere piece of empty bombastic declamation—full of sound and fury, but signifying nothing. Pointless as the speech was, it was received with the noisiest demonstrations of applause by his friends, who probably knowing that nothing could be said in favor of their party, were gratified to see how adroitly he filled up his time, and what a torrent of high-sounding words he kept up, without in reality saying anything.

The speech of Mr. Hendricks, on the contrary, was a calm, clear, argumentative exposition of the principles of the Democratic party, and their peculiar adaptedness to the wants of the country, as proved by the success which has attended their adoption, and the prosperity which they have brought to the Union. On the nigger question he said but little, as he considered his duties in the office to which he aspired related more peculiarly to the much neglected white race—and we fully agree with him. He ably refuted the calumnies his competitor showered on the Democratic party, and showed conclusively the emptiness of Republican promises by their barrenness of results; no good fruits could be shown as the result of Republican government. The inconsistency of that party was shown up in a masterly style, and the hollowness of their pretences ably delineated. While adopting the homestead bill as one of the chief planks in their Chicago platform, they nominated a man for Vice President who had always bitterly opposed the measure, and had actually voted against it a few days before his nomination! Col. Lane when in Congress had made no attempt to pass a Homestead bill, while the first speech he (Hendricks) made in Congress was in favor of that measure. We have no room to follow in detail all the points made in this admirable speech but may refer to it again.

Mr. Hendricks is a pleasing, graceful speaker, moderate but decided in his views, clear, distinct and forcible in his language, and peculiarly winning, courteous and unassuming in his manner. He affords a striking contrast to the boisterous, declamatory clap-trap style of his opponent, with his ridiculous antics and mountebank tricks; and is incomparably the most suitable man for Governor of a large and growing State like Indiana. Every sensible man, whatever his politics, must give him the preference, and feel that the best interests of the State would be safer in the hands of such a pratical clear-headed statesman, than in those of such an inflated, empty demagogue as his opponent.

We hope the joint canvass may be extended to every county in the State. We should want every citizen to see and hear the two men together, compare their capabilities and claims to public confidence, and the result could not fail to be an overwhelming majority for Hendricks.

TERRIBLE HURRICANE!

Houses, Barns, Orchards &c. Destroyed!

On Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock we were visited by a tremendous wind storm, accompanied with thunder and lightning, but no rain or hail. In the city the storm was comparatively light, and we do not hear of any material damage being done; but immediately north it raged with fearful violence. The William Penn House, on the Lima Plank Road, a large brick building, had both gable ends blown down, and the barn, on the opposite side of the road had the roof and a portion of the sides blown away. An unoccupied new dwelling of Mr C. Fegel, a short distance from the Penn House, was totally destroyed; as was also the log cabin of Mr Geistdorfer, whose family were buried in the ruins, but fortunately were not severely injured. A barn adjoining the cabin was carried entirely away, scarcely a fragment being left in the vicinity. Fences, orchards, and forest trees were alike swept off, marking the devastating course of the hurricane, and leaving behind a terrible scene of confusion and destruction. Mr. Jesse Coles, a mile east of the Penn House had a valuable tract of choice timber entirely prostrated, scarcely a tree being left standing. Mr. Blakeley, who lives east of Coles', had his orchard and barn ruined, and several others, living between him and the Feeder Dam, also sustained heavy loss in buildings, fences, &c. The brick house of John Waters, on the St. Joe, above the Dam, was destroyed, as was also his barns, and a frame house. We hear of much damage along the St. Joe and Cedar Creek, but have no room for particulars. The storm was also felt down the Maumee and other parts of the county, and we also hear of it in Wells county.

In all this destruction of property it seems miraculous that so few persons were personally hurt. We hear of a child belonging to a French family near the Feeder Dam who is severely perhaps dangerously wounded, which is the only one that has come to our knowledge. Many persons were in danger of being carried away by the violence of the wind, and only secured themselves by holding on to trees or stumps, or by laying flat on the ground and holding on to the grass or bushes; and even these in some cases had to renew their hold several times before they could remain secure. It was the most violent storm ever remembered here.

At Indianapolis, about 5 o'clock the same evening, a violent storm was experienced, accompanied by hail stones of prodigious size. Its ravages were confined to the southern border of the city. Several buildings were destroyed, and one man, Mr Goldsmith, was so severely injured by the roof falling upon him that his life is despaired of. Two others were also injured, but not dangerously.

The past two weeks seems to have been peculiarly prolific in hurricanes. We hear of them in every direction. In Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, and various parts of this State, and in Cattaraugus Co, New York.

The Caucus Platform.—Jeff Davis' resolutions in relation to slavery in the territories have been passed, with some amendments, by the Senate. Mr Clingman moved to amend the fourth resolution to the effect that the existing condition of the Territories of the United States does not require the intervention of Congress for the protection of property in slaves. This proviso was adopted. Ayes 26, Nays 22. Mr Bright, of Indiana, voted with the fire-eaters against the proviso—a vote which is utterly opposed to the sentiment of the State he should represent, and will not be approved by a single Democrat in Indiana. When a public servant becomes so blinded by prejudice and personal hostility that he can no longer discharge his duty to his constituents it is time he should resign. A residence at home among the people for a few weeks might open his eyes to the folly of the course he has lately been pursuing.

☞ The friends of the Baltimore Convention and the Secessionists lately held meetings in Huntsville, Alabama, to appoint delegates to their respective State Conventions. The number present, who were for Baltimore and for its nominees, whoever they may be, was seven hundred. The Secessionists had but thirty persons at their meeting. This is about the ratio of strength of the two parties in all North Alabama.

Hon. John Law, one of the ablest men in the State, was nominated for Congress from the 4th Congressional District, by the Democratic Convention held at Princeton on Wednesday.

Eighth District.—The Republicans of the 8th (Lafayette) district have nominated Isaac A. Wright, of Fountain Co., as their candidate for Congress.

Eleventh District.—At the Democratic Congressional Convention, held at Huntington on Tuesday, Asbury Steele, of Grant Co., was unanimously nominated for Congress. Resolutions were adopted reiterating attachment to the Cincinnati Platform, as endorsed at Charleston; and approving the course of the Indiana delegation at Charleston, and requesting them to continue to vote for Douglas as long as his name should be before the Baltimore Convention.

The first public exhibition of the Allen Co. Horticultural Society was held in Colerick's Hall yesterday. The exhibition of strawberries was magnificent, including many of the most esteemed varieties, and afforded ample evidence either that our climate is admirably adapted to this choice fruit, or that we have among us most skilful and industrious cultivators. Several mammoth samples of Pie Plant were on exhibition, as also currants, gooseberries, &c., and samples of last year's apples in excellent preservation, appearing as fresh and inviting as if just gathered from the tree. A profusion of rare and beautiful flowers, tastefully and admirably arranged, adorned the room, and added much to the general appearance of the exhibition. The whole affair was extremely well got up and managed, and reflects much credit on the Society.

Consecration of the Lindenwood Cemetery.—This new burial ground was consecrated with appropriate religious ceremonies, participated in by most of the clergy of our city, on Wednesday last. The address was delivered by Rev. Mr. McMullen of Richmond; Rev. Mr Lowrie of this city recited a beautiful poetic address prepared for the occasion; prayer was offered by Rev Mr Battin, portions of the scripture were read by other clergymen, and an ode and suitable hymns and psalms sung by the choir. The whole services were solemn and impressive, and were listened to with deep attention by the large audience in attendance.

After the services a public sale of lots was had, which resulted most satisfactorily to the trustees, $4,000 worth being sold. Many others will be sold at private sale shortly, purchasers desiring a more convenient opportunity to examine the grounds and make their selections than could be afforded at a public sale.

The City Free Schools closed yesterday, after a term of five months. The attendance of children has been large, and their general improvement we believe highly satisfactory,—thanks to the excellent corps of teachers who were engaged. The school will probably recommence about the 1st October.

Meeting of State Central Committee.—Pursuant to notice, the Democratic State Central Committee met at the State Sentinel office, Indianapolis, on Wednesday, the 30th of May, Hon. N B Palmer in the chair. On motion, J J Bingham was elected Secretary. After consultation the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Committee:

Resolved, That the action of the delegates from Indiana to the National Democratic Convention at Charleston has our cordial approval, and we believe that it fairly and justly represents the sentiment of their constituency.

Resolved, That the platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention has the cordial approval of the Democracy of Indiana.

Resolved, That the delegates appointed by the State Convention held on the 11th of January last, to the National Convention, be requested to attend the adjourned Baltimore Convention, and faithfully carry out the instructions of the State Convention, and if said delegates cannot attend, that they notify their contingents of their inability to do so in ample time for them to attend said Convention.

Resolved, That we have unabated confidence in the political integrity of Stephen A Douglas; that we believe he is the choice of the Democracy of Indiana for the Presidency, and that we have no doubt, if elected President, he will faithfully carry out and observe all the provisions of the Constitution, and that the constitutional rights of the States will not only be respected in letter, but in spirit.

Resolved, That it is a settled and cardinal principle of the Democratic party that the choice of a majority of the party, regularly and honestly expressed, ought, and of right should prevail, and has Hon. Stephen A Douglas has, in regular Convention, on numerous ballots, received a majority of the whole number of electoral votes, for the sake of harmony it is the duty of the minority to yield.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Democracy of Indiana a thorough organization as necessary to successfully meet and overcome a well disciplined and unscrupulous political foe. To that end we suggest a county, township and school district organization, for the thorough dissemination of correct information upon the political issues of the day.

Resolved, That experience having demonstrated that the best interests of the State are dependent upon the maintenance of Democratic policy, it is the first duty of the Democracy of Indiana to secure a Democratic administration of her State affairs.

Resolved, That the President and Secretary of the last State Convention be requested to supply the President of the Baltimore Convention with the names to the delegates and contingent delegates to the National Democratic Convention, with the instructions of the State Convention to said delegates.

Resolved, That this Committee adjourn to meet on the 28th day of June.

By order of the committee.

N. B. PALMER, Chairman.

Buffalo, May 24.

A vote was taken in the conference this morning on the first resolution in the majority of the committee's report, which recommends a change of the roles in the discipline on slavery. The vote stood 138 for the resolution and 74 against, lacking ten votes of the required two thirds to adopt.

Buffalo, May 31.

After the transaction of some uninteresting business, the slavery report was taken up.

The substitute of Dr. Durbin, offered some days ago, was taken from the table and rejected.

The question before the conference was on the adoption of the third resolution in the majority report, which introduces a new chapter on slavery into the discipline, in place of the old one.

Various amendments were offered and rejected, when at 5 o'clock the main question was called and the new chapter adopted by a vote of 154 to 57.

The First Question at Baltimore—The New Delegates from the Gulf States.

The first question which will meet the Convention at Baltimore, when it reassembles on the 18th of June, will be the admission of the new delegates from the seceding States. The idea advanced by some, of having the seceders come back and resume their places, without any new election or new credentials from their constituents at home, has been abandoned, it being manifestly wrong and impossible. We need not, therefore, allude to that position. Two Conventions have been called in each of the States of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, to appoint delegates. One of them is by the National Democracy in those States, who stand upon the platform adopted at Charleston, and who pledge themselves to support the nominees at Baltimore, whoever they be, without any reservation whatever. They especially repudiate the call for the Richmond Convention, and treat it in all respects as an opposition assemblage, as much so as that which recently met at Chicago.

On the other hand, the friends of the seceders in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, perhaps, other States, who claim regular organization, have called conventions 'to deliberate what is best to be done;' whether the States shall be represented in the Opposition Convention at Richmond, or the Democratic Convention at Baltimore. Their design, as avowed by their organs, is to appoint delegates to both the Democratic Convention at Baltimore and the Opposition Convention at Richmond. The will meet in the latter city first, and, after perfecting an organization, will adjourn over until after the Baltimore Convention. They will go to the latter body with an ultimatum that, if it does not change the platform and nominate somebody else for President than Mr. Douglas they will meet again at Richmond and nominate candidates in opposition to those regularly nominated by the Democracy of the country.

The statement of these two points indicates which set of delegates from Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi, should be received at Baltimore. As no man can serve God and Mammon at the same time, so no one can be allowed to go into both the Richmond and Baltimore Conventions. Those who recognize the Richmond affair in any shape or manner, who participate in its proceedings are outside of the pale of the Democratic party. Especially are they so when they denounce the national platform just made by the Democratic party, and declare their purpose of refusing to support its nominees unless they are those whom they prefer. The call of these gentlemen in the Gulf States shows that they are no Democrats. It is not to send delegates to Baltimore to fill the place of the seceders, but to deliberate which is best to be done; whether the Democracy shall go to Baltimore or whether they shall join the opposition at Richmond. The very fact that they leave it an open question convicts them of being hostile to the Democratic organization, which never for a moment contemplate its disbandment.

It matters not, therefore, what claims of regularity may be set up by these men, no one can be received into the Baltimore Convention who is in any way identified with Richmond, and who make an ultimatum the price of their adherence to the Democratic party. The delegates of the National Democracy from the Gulf States are the only persons who have a shadow of claim to be admitted in Baltimore, and we presume the question of contested seats, if it is raised, will be summarily settled in their favor. This done, no question should be considered in order before the Convention except to ballot for the office of President of the United States.—Cin. En.

Stationary Boots.

Illinois has a reputation at Washington in the business of stationery. Some years ago John Wentworth represented this district in Congress. An accident to the mail at Buffalo, required the opening of certain bags of "documents" franked to our member, and the result was the discovery of whole bags of public property taken by Wentworth and franked home by that individual. An investigation followed in Congress, and the result was that the public stationery was put under lock and key, and a book-keeper appointed whose duty it is to deliver to each member as it is called for, such articles as he may desire—keeping an account of the same at cost prices.—When the amount taken exceeds an established sum, the excess is deducted from his salary.

Now when Lincoln went to Congress, he thought he would make a shine; fashionable boots were high, even at a figure rather above the Springfield rates. After studying the case for a long time, he worked out how he could supply himself with boots, and yet not pay for them out of his pocket. He first thought of delivering a lecture, but no one could be found who would come down with the $200. He then thought of making speeches and charging 25 cents a head just as he did recently in New England, but he could not get persons to come to hear him. In this extremity his futile genius suggested that he would buy the boots and have them paid for out of the public money. He therefore ordered a pair at eight dollars; they were sent up, by Abe's orders, to the stationery clerk at the capitol, and Abe drew them as stationary. At the next session he drew another pair of boots in the same manner—they being paid for out of the public money. When he was leaving for home—quitting Congress for ever—he ordered an extra fine pair at NINE DOLLARS, and they were boxed up with his books, and franked to "Hon. Abraham Lincoln, Springfield, Illinois."

The record of this boot transaction stands thus on the books of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, and in his vouchers in the treasury at Washington:

"Hon. Abraham Lincoln:

Three pairs of boots..............$25."

The idea that 'this government cannot permanently endure half free and half slave,' when members of Congress can provide themselves with boots—NINE DOLLAR BOOTS,—at the expense of the people, is preposterous. Just think of 'Honest Abe' having his boots sent up to the capitol to be drawn out by him as 'stationary.' Just think of the simplicity of the honest man, who taxed the people to pay for his boots when he was drawing eight dollars per day and mileage.

Col. Lane, of Indiana, when speaking of Lincoln in the Republican Convention, closed his remarks by saying:

'Thirty years ago you might have seen near the boundary line between Indiana and Illinois, Abe Lincoln leading barefooted oxen to the pasture and following them with the plow.'

Lincoln's early experience with 'barefooted oxen' might have given him some strange notions about boots; but, certain it is, that the first moment he got to Congress he provided himself, at the public expense, with the best boots he could obtain.—Chicago Times.

North Carolina Politics.—Extract from a private letter from a North Carolina delegate to the National Convention, written to a friend in this city:

'It required as much moral courage and firmness in a Southern delegate to remain in the convention as it did to go out. I never for a moment wavered in the determination to remain. I am satisfied that the leaders of the secession movement are disunionists per se. I am not prepared for dissolution. North Carolina is not prepared for it. God forbid that the day should ever come when the madness, the aggressions of the North, and our own prejudices and folly, should compel us thus to prepare. The issue is now between taking Stephen A Douglas at Baltimore, and defeat and sectional dissolution.'—Wash. States.

Ex-President Fillmore for Bell.—The Jersey City Standard has seen a recent letter from ex-President Fillmore, in which that gentleman says:

'If it was in my power, I would at once elect Messrs. Bell and Everett, than whom better nominations could not have been made.'

Washington, May 29.

The act of recommitting the Pacific Railroad bill, together with the various amendments, to the Select Committee of the House to-day, is regarded as equivalent to its postponement for the present session. The reasons for thus disposing of it, include the contrariety of opinions as to the proper location of the Road, and the insufficiency of the conditions to secure the execution of the work by those on whom the franchises were to be conferred.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs today unanimously agreed to report the Senate bill appropriating $10,000 to Townsend Harris, for negotiating the treaty with Siam, which is intended as an acknowledgment of his valuable services to the Commerce in the East.

Mr. Hatch's report on the Canadian Reciprocity Treaty is not only opposed to the main articles of that instrument, but the Administration are also reported against it, and the Treaty will be opposed upon the floor of the House. The Secretary of State declines to comply with the call of the House for a copy of Hatch's report, on the ground that it would be incompatible with the public interests.

The admission of Kansas is specially assigned for to-day in the Senate. Mr Sumner will make an elaborate speech on the subject on Monday.

☞ The meeting called at New Orleans, for the purpose of repudiating the action of the seceders at Charleston, and sustaining Judge Douglas, was very fully attended. The principle was the ardent and impulsive Pierre Soule, formerly Minister to Spain. He charged upon the Southern States that they had been placed in an abnormal position by the action of the seceding delegates. The question now before the country, he said, might be reduced to these terms: Is the power of the country to be transferred to the Chicago Republicans, or shall it be left in the hands of the party which has withstood so many storms? On the question of popular sovereignty, as explained by Judge Douglas, Mr Soule claimed that John C Calhoun had given countenance to same identical views, and so had Messrs Cobb, Toucey and Dickinson. He declared that the present was no time for a division in the Democratic ranks.

Arrival of the Arabia.

Halifax, May 28.

The royal mail steamship Arabia, Capt Stone, from Liverpool on the 19th, via Queenstown on the 20th inst., has arrived at this port.

Intelligence relative to the Garibaldi expedition is still meagre and conflicting, but the reports generally concur in stating that he was making good progress. Some say that he had captured the most important points in Sicily, except Messina and Palermo. After his landing at Marsili, the Neapolitan war vessels bombarded that town without a warning, and the British vessels interposed for the protection of the English residents.

The important announcement was made via Madrid that the King of Naples had applied for foreign intervention.

Among other questionable rumors was that a treaty, offensive and defensive, had been concluded between Naples, Rome, Austria, and all the deposed Italian sovereigns.

The latest accounts from Naples represent the utmost consternation. The troops were dispirited, and tumultuous manifestations were taking place. The royal family was packing up all their jewelry valuables, and strong indications that a great insurrection is looked for.

At the latest dates Garibaldi's forces were moving on Palermo.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The British government has issued a proclamation against enlistment for the Pope in Ireland, but does not interfere in the subscriptions for the Sicilian insurgents, the law officers of the crown not regarding it as illegal.

English funds were very heavy under continental politics, but there was more steadiness at the close.

FRANCE.—The Paris bourse had been greatly depressed, but closed firmer. Rentes 68f.80c.

The French minister at Naples had asked for four ships of war, and the vessels had been sent.

The French fleet were about to sail for the Levant.

There were vague and unauthentic rumors of a new French loan for military purposes.

ITALY.—Theodore Parker died at Florence on the 10th.

It was reported that Lamoriciere had made a forward movement with the Papal troops, and 5,000 Piedmontese troops had embarked from Genoa to check him.

It was positively ascertained that the French army of Rome had received orders to evacuate that city.

It is said that the Sardinian government had ordered the garrisons of Central Italy to march rapidly towards the pontifical frontiers.

London, Saturday.—The Championship—Bell's Life, of this morning announces that a meeting took place between Sayers and Heenan, at that office yesterday, to discuss measures for terminating the dispute between them, as to the possession of the champion's belt. It was ultimately agreed that two new belts, exact counterparts of the one so much coveted, should be made. The money for the purchase to be raised by public subscription; each of the candidates was to head the list for that to be held by his opponent. The old belt will remain in possession of the proprietor of Bell's Life, to be fought for by whoever may aspire to the honor of wearing it. Sayers has engaged to retire from the prize ring.

SPAIN.—General Concha had been elected president of the Spanish senate, and decorated with the order of the Golden Fleece.

The army of Africa entered Madrid amid much enthusiasm.

RUSSIA.—The Austrian government had stated that the British ambassador to Russia, on receipt of Gortschakoff's communication relative to Turkey, lodged a formal protest against it, but this was not so. He only received the communication under reserve, by stating that he intended to refer it to his government for instructions in the matter.

A late dispatch says that England would not interfere.

A letter from Garibaldi explains that the steamers used by him were taken possession of forcibly, and not chartered.

Garibaldi had issued proclamations to the Romans and Neapolitans, calling them to revolt.

Palermo dispatches of the 13th say that in five churches, at the termination of mass, shouts of Italy forever! Liberty forever! &c., were raised. In the evening, the populace, to the number of 10,000, assembled. The police were unable to disperse them, and the troops were called out, and fired on the people, killing four and wounding ten. Several persons were arrested.

There was some excitement in Florence, owing to the appearance of placards in favor of the ex-grand duke.

There were rumors of the intention of an attempt at the recovery of his power.

The garrison was strengthened, and the national guard called out.

A defalcation, on a small scale, has been discovered against the cashier of Panky & Co's bank, of London, but no prosecution was made.

An influential deputation, headed by Milner Gibson, had laid before Lord Palmerston the plans for Col Shaffner's telegraph to America, via the Faroe islands and Iceland.

The Russian Grand Duke Nicholas was on a visit to the Emperor Napoleon.

A report that France had offered pecuniary indemnity to Switzerland was unfounded.

Austria refuses to admit Piedmont to the conference, on the ground that Cavour had declared she intended to take no part in the dispute between France and Switzerland.

The Papal troops are continually concentrating at Gubio.

It is stated that the date is fixed for the French evacuation of Rome, and the first detachment will leave shortly.

The King of Naples had subscribed a million scudi to the Papal loan.

The Prussian chambers had passed the government project for the war credit—315 against 21.

Russia is said to have collected at Nicolai a large number of transports.

Liverpool, May 16.

Richardson, Spence & Co. report the weather favorable for crops.

FLOUR—Firm, but American neglected; sales at 26s 6da30s.

Albany, May 23.

Coming to their Senses.—Hon Jno Cramer, delegate at large on the Wood ticket at the Charleston convention, and the representative man of the Wood-Dickinson movement in this city, has written a letter that he has become perfectly satisfied that Stephen A. Douglas is the only man the Baltimore convention can present with any hope of success. This letter is regarded here as an indication of alarm on the part of the Dickinson men. It is said that it will be followed by other similar demonstrations.

New Castle, Del, May 28.

Rendering an Account.—Messrs Bayard and Whitely gave account of their stewardship at Charleston, last night, and were sustained, and were also instructed by the county convention to resume their seats at Baltimore, provided the nationality has restored by the action of a sufficient portion of the regular delegations from the seceding States.

Portrait of Lincoln.—Mr. Douglas, in his speech at Ottawa, Aug. 21st 1858, gives the following graphic sketch of his competitor, Abe Lincoln:

"In the remarks I have made on this platform, (the Republican platform made at Springfield, Ill., in 1854,) and the position of Mr. Lincoln upon it, I mean nothing personally disrespectful or unkind to that gentleman. I have known him for nearly twenty-five years. There were many points of sympathy between us when we first got acquainted. We were both comparatively boys, and both struggling with poverty in a strange land. I was a school teacher in the town of Manchester, and he was a flourishing grocery keeper in the town of Salem. He was more successful in his occupation than I was in mine, and hence more fortunate in this world's goods. Lincoln is one of those peculiar men who perform with admirable skill everything which they undertake. I made as good a school teacher as I could, and when a cabinet maker I made a good bedstead and tables, although my old boss said I succeeded better with bureaus and secretaries than with anything else; but I believe that Lincoln was always more successful in business than I, for his business enabled him to get into the legislature. I met him there, however, and had a sympathy with him, because of the uphill struggle we both had in life. He was then just as good at telling an anecdote as now. He could beat any of the boys wrestling, or running a foot race, in pitching quoits or tossing a copper; could ruin more liquor than all the boys of the town together, and the dignity and impartiality with which he presided at a horse-race or fist fight, excited the admiration and won the praise of everybody that was present and participated. I sympathized with him, because he was struggling with difficulties, and so was I. Mr Lincoln served with me in the legislature in 1836, when we both retired, and he subsided, or became submerged, and he was lost sight of as a public man for some years. In 1846, when Wilmot introduced his celebrated proviso, and the Abolition tornado swept over the country, Lincoln again turned up as a member of Congress from the Sangamon district. I was then in the Senate of the United States, and was glad to welcome my old friend and companion. Whilst in Congress, he distinguished himself by his opposition to the Mexican war, taking the side of the common enemy against his own country; and when he returned home he found that the indignation of the people followed him everywhere, and he was again submerged or obliged to retire into private life, forgotten by his former friends. He came up again in 1854, just in time to make this Abolition or Black Republican platform, in company with Giddings, Lovejoy, Chase and Fred Douglass, for the Republican party to stand upon."

A Vile Practice.—An exposure was made in the United States Senate a few days ago, which reflects no credit upon the fairness and good taste of Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts. It appears that a considerable portion of his speech on the proposed law for the suppression of the slave trade, was not delivered in the Senate, but was published in the Washington Globe. These sentences in which he severely reflected upon the conduct of the Southern judiciary were never heard in the Senate, and no opportunity was given at the time for a reply. This speech was also furnished to the Associated Press, in lieu of proof from a prominent Republican newspaper.

The Texas Delegates.—The Detroit Free Press tells how the Texas delegation was manufactured:

The delegation pretending to represent Texas was got up at Grand Haven in this State. The names of the delegates, as they appeared in the published list, were 'Dunbar Henderson, James Scott, J Strauss, G Fitch, delegates at large; E. J Garrison, Williams Seagrist, M T Chandler, A J Yonkom, district delegates'—not one of whom was ever within a thousand miles of Texas. Of these, fellows 'Dunbar Henderson' is none other than Don C Henderson, the editor of a one horse Black Republican paper at Allegan in this State; 'James Scott' James P Scott, the Black Republican County Clerk of Ottawa county; 'J Strauss' is simply J Strauss, the keeper of a small beer saloon in the village of Grand Haven; M T Chandler is a resident of Canada East, and is not now, and never was, a citizen of the United States; but at the time the movement was started he was on a visit to Grand Haven, and readily into it. The others, we believe, did not enter the Convention, but all of them are residents of Grand Haven and its immediate vicinity. Henderson was one of the Secretaries of the Convention, and Chandler, the British subject, was one of the Vice Presidents.

We would add that another of the above list—Mr G Fitch—was and still is a resident of this city; and we have reason to believe never saw Texas.

Honest John Letcher.—The Governor Virginia, "honest John Letcher," has recently written a letter on the present aspect of political affairs in the Democratic party. In it he says:

"First, I still approve the doctrine of Congressional 'non-intervention' on the question of slavery. I consider it the only safe position for the South.

"Second, I disapprove of the course of Alabama and other Southern States in seceding from the Charleston Convention. I do not pretend to question their motives, but I consider their action ill advised."

The country contains but few men whose opinions are as valuable as those of Gov. Letcher, and the above brief quotations from his letter show what he thinks, and his views will have due weight in Virginia and other Southern States.

Official Change on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad.—We understand that the following appointments and changes have been made by Geo. W. Cass, Esq. President and General Superintendent of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, to take effect on the 1st of June: Jos. H. Moore, now Superintendent of the Eastern Division, to take charge of the business and property of the Company at Chicago and in the North-West; Augustus Bradley, present Secretary, to act as Superintendent of the Eastern Division till further notice, his office to be removed to Penn Station, Pittsburg; W. H. Barnes is transferred to the office of the President and the General Superintendent; J. K. Smith to be paymaster in the place of W. H. Barnes; John J. Houston, General Freight Agent, will establish his office permanently at Pittsburg. John Zeigler, cashier at Penn station, to act as station agent, at that station, until further notice.

J C Davis to be station agent at Fort Wayne.

☞ In the contested election case of Wallace and Gulick, for the office of Sheriff of Marion county, the Supreme Court has decided that the office of Mayor is a judicial one, and that the incumbent is not eligible to any other except a judicial office during the term for which he was elected Mayor. The Sheriff's office is therefore given to Mr Gulick, with the emoluments arising therefrom.

Douglas Cane.—We have had recently made from a saw log cut thirty years and three months since, by Stephen A Douglas, when he attended a saw mill nights and Saturdays and taught school the balance of the time. The log was somewhat decayed, yet the heart was sound, and from which we obtained a beautiful cane. The remainder of the log will be sent to Baltimore for inspection by the Southern delegates.—Decatur Magnet.

Wind Wagons.—Some time ago we mentioned that Mr Andy Dawson, of Oskaloosa, was constructing a wind wagon, in which he intended to go to Pike's Peak. Since that time, the machine has been finished, and realized the most sanguine expectations of the projector, carrying him through in twenty days. Encouraged by this success, other parties in the same town set about the construction of the same kind of wagons, and on Monday a party of eight started out on the prairies to try one which had just been finished. The wind was blowing a gale at the time, and every thing worked to a charm. The occupants, gliding swiftly over the prairies, were delighting themselves with anticipations of a speedy and comfortable trip to the mines, when the velocity of the vehicle created a lively alarm for their safety. The wagon sped onward before the driving wind, faster and faster yet, until the axeltrees broke and deposited them all upon the ground, and in somewhat damaged condition, from broken heads, bruised limbs and bodies—The speed of the machine is said to have been forty miles per hour. We suggest the use of brakes.—Leavenworth Herald.

The Republican papers are very busy just now in publishing the speech that Lincoln delivered in New York, last winter, when the faithful were charged the regular circus rate of twenty-five admittance fee. It should be entitled "The Great Two-Shilling Speech."

Mr. Lincoln is now said to stand six feet four inches in his stocking feet. A month ago he was only six feet three; this shows the effect of a presidential nomination upon physical growth. It is more rapid than ordinary guano.

Dr. Roback's Remedies.

We publish in another column of to-day's paper, an article copied from the Cincinnati Times, descriptive of Dr. Roback's extensive medical establishment in that city. By the way Dr. Roback's Remedies have obtained a great and deserved popularity with all classes. It has been but a short time since these Remedies were introduced into our section of country, yet Dr. Brennan, Dr. Roback's agent in this place, informs us that his sales of the Blood Pills and Blood Purifier now far exceed those of all other medicines for which he is agent, combined.—The reason for this, is, that they have stood the test of practical experience. We know this not only from the mouths of others but we have used them in our own family with the very best results. For all diseases of the blood general debility, whether proceeding from sickness or from natural weakness, indigestion and all kindred ailments, we recommend the Scandinavian Remedies as the very best medicine extant. They are destined to achieve, not an ephemeral success but a permanent and deserved reputation, which will render them a necessity in every family.—Napoleon O, North West, March 2.

THE FEMALE ORGANIZATION is often as frail as that of a tender flower. Many of the sex enter into the marriage relations without being able to undergo the labors and maternity. In this country thousands of young and beautiful women are sacrificed every year from this cause alone.—Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters will save many of this class from an untimely grave. This medicine has been used with great benefit by immense numbers of people throughout the United States, and the proprietors have received grateful commendations from all sections of the country.—The Bitters will be found to be very pleasant to the taste, even as a beverage, and prompt and powerful in its effect as a medicine. It infuses new vitality into the whole system, and strengthens the whole system, so that women who use it are enabled to go through with labors which would, without it, be certain to prostrate them.

Sold by all druggists.

CLEVELAND WOOL DEPOT.

GRADES

HAVE been established over seven years and are well and favorably known to all the leading manufacturers of New England. The fact has enabled us to procure orders for

1,000,000 POUNDS

of the new clip. Our consignors may therefore realize the

CASH FOR THEIR WOOL

the day it is received and graded.
This arrangement will enable holders of Wool to procure from

3 to 5 Cents More a Pound

for medium and fine wools in fair condition, than in any other way it can be sold, for there is not a manufacturer who will not pay the advance for the specific grades he wants. This affords

Unsurpassed Advantages

To Wool Growers and Merchants to procure their money without any delay, and the

for their wool.
Those of our friends who are not desirous to secure their money at once, but prefer to wait for higher prices, which are usually procured later in the season, may depend upon the same attention to their interests which has been exercised for the last seven years.
We are thankful for the liberal favors extended to us through the financial reverses of the past, and shall endeavor to merit increased confidence and patronage.
Sacks will be sent as heretofore to parties wishing. Also, a very excellent article of wool Twine, at from 10 to 15 cents per pound, reasonable discounts made by the ton. GOODALE & CO

DR. ROBACK'S BLOOD PURIFIER & PILLS,

THE GREAT

Scandinavian Vegetable Remedies.

To Those who Think and Reason,

The intelligent in this country are always ready to test the merits of a prominent discovery or invention, and if satisfied of its excellence, to adopt, approve, and recommend it. It is to this thinking reasoning class, who always look before they leap, and whose honest and rational judgment gives tone to public opinion that DR ROBACK'S BLOOD PURIFIER AND PILLS owe their immense success. When this

First announced that his Scandinavian Remedies were infallible in Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Diseases, Sexual Weakness, Scrofula, Premature old age, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fits, Hemorrhoids or Piles, Weak Stomach, Colds, Diarrhea, etc., he stated the manner in which they operated. Their actual effects were compared by sagacious men, with the distinguished Physician's statements, and it was found that every stage of the progress of cure, was precisely as he had described it. The result was that the mind of the country became interested, and that persons of the highest standing in every city and town in the Union, patronized the preparations, and admitted the claims of the illustrious Swede, to be the First Medical Discoverer of the age.

THE BLOOD PURIFIER AND PILLS are now universally recommended by well informed and candid persons, as an immediate cure for

INDIGESTION,

Costiveness, diseases of the Kidneys, Cramps in the Stomach, Wind, Colic, Pain between the Shoulders, Nausea, Headache,

LIVER COMPLAINT.

Jaundice, Pain in the right side, Loss of appetite, Sleeplessness, Nightmare,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

Nervous Tremors, Fainting Fits, Epilepsy, Mental Irritation, Despondency, Wasting of the Flesh,

SCROFULA.

Sore Leg, Ulcers on the body, Pimples on the face, General Eruptions, Boils, Mercurial Sores, Glandular Swellings, Secondary Symptoms,

NEURALGIA,

Rheumatism, Lumbago, Stiff Joints, Paralysis, Vitus' Dance, Nervous Twitchings,

FEMALE COMPLAINTS,

Sexual Weakness, Barrenness, Disease of the Womb Weakness of the Back, Loins and Limbs.

AUTOGRAPH LETTERS.

Of distinguished men in every profession, warmly recommending the preparations may be seen at Dr. Roback's Office.

In the SCANDINAVIAN VEGETABLE BLOOD PILLS are united the three great medicinal properties which Physicians have hitherto tried in vain to combine in one preparation. They relieve the bowels, purify the bile and the blood, and invigorate the constitution at one and the same time. To this fact all who try them will subscribe. The absence of minerals, and of every stupefying drug, renders them harmless, even to the most delicate female, or the feeblest child. No one can doubt their superiority after one single trial—they are not only better, but, in fact, cheaper than any other Pills, for it takes a less number of them to produce a better effect.
Price of the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, $1 per bottle, or $5 per half dozen. Scandinavian Blood Pills, 25 cents per box, or five for $1.
☞ Read Dr Roback's Special Notices and Certificates, published in a conspicuous part of this paper from time to time. Dr Roback's Medical Almanac and Family adviser, containing a great amount of interesting and valuable Medical information can be had gratis of any of his agents throughout the country.

CARLISLE, Warren Co., O., March 8, 1856
Dr C. W. Roback—Dear Sir: For the benefit of suffering humanity, permit me to say that I have found your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills a sure cure for Indigestion and Liver Complaint. I have suffered from the above mentioned diseases for five years and have tried a great many physicians but all to no purpose. I was advised by a friend to try your Blood Purifier and Pills and did so; I was living in Cincinnati at the time, and I went to your office and purchased one bottle of the Purifier and one box of Pills to commence with, and bless the day I found your valuable medicines, for I am enjoying good health at present, and feel confident that the cure is permanent. Let others buy and take what they please; as for me, give me the Blood Purifier and Pills for all chronic diseases which arise from impure blood, or derangement of the digestive organs. I take no other medicines, and have not for the last eighteen months.
Most truly, V. DUBOIS.

National Dispensary for Private Diseases.

Established January 1st, 1859

$500, $500 FORFEIT!!

Three Eminent Physicians in constant attendance.

The Faculty of the Institution consisting of

PROF. EGBERT JACKSON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London

DR. ROBERT HERBERT,

Late of Paris, a member of the Society of Friends.

M. EUGENE VELPEAU,

Late of the London and Paris Hospitals.

Guarantee, under a penalty of $500, a complete cure of every Sexual Disease, however aggravated by neglect, and without mercury.

We feel perfectly safe in making this offer, because we will not undertake any case that we are not sure of curing.

THE PHYSICIANS of the National Dispensary have discovered the ONLY REMEDY in the WORLD from all the effects of early imprudence. Relief in twenty four hours. A cure warranted in from one to four weeks.

Married persons, or young people contemplating matrimony, who are aware, or fearing any physical weakness, deformities, or organic debility, should make application at once.

They who place themselves under our care, may rely religiously in our honor as gentlemen that their secret will be inviolate, and that a CERTAIN CURE will follow at the following diseases:

Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Self-Abuse, Weakness of the Back, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those Dreadful and Destructive Practices which render marriage impossible, and destroy both body and Mind.

The Mountain of Light, or Medical Protector,

A book of near 300 PAGES, containing full information about all private diseases, and a guide for those who are married or thinking of marriage, will be sent on receipt of 52 cents. This book contains the most valuable information in the language—Useful alike to male or female, but should not be in the hands of very young persons, as it contains information that might be perverted to unworthy ends. Also a full and explicit key to all the hidden and delightful secrets of Marriage, Love and Beauty, never before revealed in any book in the English language. Price 50 cents—one of the cheapest books in the world. If health could be estimated in money, the few cents contained in this book for the prevention of ill health, would be cheap at the above forfeiture. Send for a Circular fully describing it.

Very liberal terms to those who buy in large or small quantities to sell again made known on application. The low price at which the book is sold (50 cents) renders it the quickest selling book in the market. Special inducements to clubs.

Every letter must contain six cents in stamps, to which will be sent a full written Reply, also, The DISPENSARY CIRCULAR, a truly valuable advisory document for old or young, married or unmarried and especially for all who have made themselves open to ... by secret practice. It contains more valuable matter than many books.

M. Velpeau's Beautifying Powder.—It imparts to the complexion an exquisite bloom and transparency, and effectually prevents the formation of wrinkles, blotches, freckles, pimples, wens, etc. etc.

DR. JACKSON'S Female Monthly Pills, invaluable in Female Irregularities, but not advisable to be used during pregnancy, lest they should mar the hope of offspring. Used in the Doctor's private practice for 30 years. Price $1. forwarded by mail.

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive, is the only article in the world that without inconvenience or danger will infallibly prevent conception. Thousands of married ladies are unable to bear children except at the hazard of their lives will find in this a boon to be thankful for this invention. It resembles no other preventive in use, and is superior to all. Forwarded by mail to any address

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

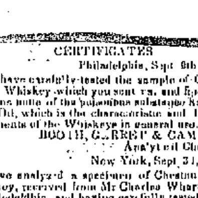

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

For sale by H. G. Wagner, H. B Reed & Co., Fort Wayne. y35

CERTIFICATES

Philadelphia, Sept 9th, 1858.

We have carefully tested the sample of Chestnut Grove Whiskey which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the poisonous substance known as Fusil Oil, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredients of the Whiskeys in general use.

BOOTH, GARRETT & CAMAC,
Analytical Chemists

New York, Sept 3d, 1858.

I have analyzed a specimen of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, received from Mr Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whiskey.

JAMES R. CHILTON, Analytical Chemist.

Boston, March 7th, 1859

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whiskey is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D. State Assayer,
